

PANTS

From tie-dye harem pants, to slim fit cotton pants, or even printed jeggings, the options on this one are endless! While harem pants are immensely comfortable in the summer heat and look great with short tops, slim fit pants and jeggings may be a better option for kurtis. With longer tops, you can match it with almost any type that you like, and you are good to go!

SKIRTS

Long skirts are back this Eid, and matched with a short top or even a kurti, these are perfect for a carefree boho look, as the long skirts add plated, or even go for silver, to add a touch of sophistication to your outfit.

MAYASIR

With its extensive yet unique collection of women, men and children's wear, Mayasir caters to the trendy crowd. Keeping the Bengali culture in mind, and specifically respecting it, their products are mainly made of cotton, khadi, and even local silk. With hand embroidery, appliques, and embellishments, Mayasir has a huge collection of trendy contemporary pieces including tops, pants, dimension to your outfit. You can opt for the classic monochrome colours or floral prints to channel sophisticated elegance. Alternatively, you can go a bit bolder and try out the new tie-dyed or batik printed ones for a chic retro look.

JEWELLERY

Bead jewellery are trending big right now, with beads of all sizes and colours available to pair with and finish off a contemporary look.

Alternatively, you can add a metal bracelet or metal earrings to your outfit so that it looks more traditional or bold, depending on our pick. Simultaneously, you can opt for something gold skirts and so on. In fact, they also have jamdani dupattas, which are sold separately. These are a brilliant way to add a bit of tradition on Eid day. You can colour coordinate it, or even opt for a contrast. With their clothes being available in light shades of cream, beige, and light blue, to bolder colours like magenta, vermillion and orange, be sure to check out the collection in Mayasir this Eid.

By Adiba Mahub Proma

Photo: Sazzad Ibne Sayed

Model: Doyel and Risila

Wardrobe: Maheen Khan, Mayasir

Make-up: Farzana Shakil's Makeover Salon