Le Meridien Ramadan celebrations brings joy

On 8 June, 2016 Le Méridien Dhaka hosted a celebratory 'iftar mahfil' with the children of Baitul Aman Housing Society Madrasah & Orphanage. Honourable Minister Rashed Khan Menon, Ministry of Civil Aviation and Tourism, presided over the event as Chief Guest - along with the hotel's Chairman Amin Ahmad, President Hasan Ahmad and General Manager Ashwani Nayar. Also present were various other dignitaries from the Government of People's Republic of Bangladesh.

With just a week after the one-year anniversary of its soft launch, the hotel took this period of the holy month of Ramadan as a good opportunity to contribute to the community.

Le Méridien Dhaka catered to the little guests the way it knows best - with uncompromising service. The hotel's management team divided itself among the 150 children of the welfare home to give them undivided attention and share stories that may encourage them to greater heights of inspiration.

"It is a very encouraging beginning for Le Méridien Dhaka to be able to share these happy moments with these beautiful children," said Nayar. "Our target guests are in fact the curious and the creative-minded, and who is more curious or creative-minded than a child. Children inspire us to do better and I hope today, with what little time we spent with them, we were able to inspire these children also."

Master Grillers' Challenge 2016

Nando's organised a 'Master Griller's Challenge' on 5 June, 2016 at their Gulshan-1 outlet in Dhaka.

This was the final round at the national level, of the international annual competition, where grillers around the world have participated. The event itself was unique in nature as it involved a month-long process in preparing the grillers in line with Nando's standard operating procedures, ensuring the global standard of its unique and famous Peri Peri chicken.

Through this process and competition, Nando's and other distinguished panel of judges selected the best of the best grillers to compete in a global platform to showcase their exceptional grilling skills.

During the challenge, the Nando's grillers from all its four branches engaged to create the most authentic Peri Peri chicken, for which they had only fifteen minutes and the whole kitchen at their disposal.

This year's winner is Jahirul Islam from the Nando's Gulshan-1 branch.

Jahirul Islam will represent Bangladesh in Kuala Lumpur, Malaysia to win the title of the World's Best Griller. The journey will give the winner from Bangladesh the opportunity to gain international exposure and a pleasant experience which he will cherish for the rest of his life.
