

MIM HOSTS IFTAR PARTY

Many would agree that Bidya Sinha Mim is currently at the apex of the local industry, and is also a sought after actress in the industry across the border. She stepped into the world of showbiz in the year 2007 through the Lux-Channel i Superstar program. She won the crest of beauty and became the torch bearer of Lux for the year. She is presently seen in movies and simultaneously television advertisements.

The slender and beautiful Fraulein of Bangladesh's showbiz circuit recently held an iftar party for journalists, commemorating her recent National Film Award win for being the Best Actress for her performance in Khalid Mahmud Mithu's "Jonakir Alo." It was a get together for all her journalist friends and colleagues at Gulshan's Gardenia Restaurant where she thanked them for their continued support and coverage of her career and her works. The actress-model started filming for her latest movie, Anannya Mamun's "Ami Tomar Hotey Chai," this Wednesday where Bappy will be seen opposite her as the co-lead.

