Missing schoolboy found dead

OUR CORRESPONDENT,

Police recovered the body of a school student from a paddy field at Mirerpara village in Gobindaganj upazila yesterday.

The victim was identified as Sumon Mia, 12, a student of Class V of Mirerpara Government Primary School.

Locals said the victim left home on Monday afternoon and had remained missing since then. The parents and relatives of Sumon searched everywhere, but could not find him. Locals found the body of the victim in a crop field in the morning.

Being informed, police rushed to the spot at around 11:00am, recovered the body and sent it to Gaibandha Hospital for autopsy.

No one was arrested in this connection. Police said they are trying to unearth clue to the incident.

Gaibandha farmers opt for sesame cultivation

OUR CORRESPONDENT, Gaibandha

Sesame (teel) farming on fallow lands is gaining popularity in different areas of the district and farmers are earning a better profit than other crops. This season saw bumper production of sesame due to favourable weather. The tasty oil seed is used for making different kinds of sweetmeats, and also for manufacturing cosmetic items, including hair oil. Comfit, commonly known as

"teeler khaja," is prepared with the seed and either sugar or molasses, and is a very popular sweetmeat.

Farmers are cultivating sesame because the production cost is low. The seed is generally cultivated on fallow lands or together with other robi crops. Sesame seeds are sowed in the Bengali month of Falgun and harvested in the month of Jaistha.

This year, sesame seed is being sold at Tk 3,000 to Tk 3,500 per maund.

According to the district office of the Department of Agriculture Extension (DAE), 280 hectares of land were brought under sesame cultivation in Shaghata, Gobindagnaj, Sadullapur and Palashbari upazilas this year.

"I cultivated sesame on one bigha of fallow land with other crops and got three maunds of sesame this season. I earned extra profit," said Amanullah, a sesame grower of Taluk Kanupur village under Gobindaganj upazila. Another sesame cultivator Azher Ali of Darbastha village, said "I cultivated sesame on one and a half bighas of fallow land and got bumper produc-

"The agriculture department is always beside the farmers and the field officers are encouraging them to cultivate highly profitable oil seeds like sesame. The farmers are getting all possible help and suggestion for cultivation of oil seeds," said Shahara Banu, upazila agriculture officer in Gobindaganj.

Rapair dyke to save eight villages from flooding

Demands human chain at Moulvibazar's Kamalganj

OUR CORRESPODENT, Moulvibazar

People of eight villages in Madhabpur union under Kamalganj upazila of the district formed a human chain at Simultala in Dhalai River area yesterday, demanding immediate steps to repair the flood control embankment that collapsed in the area due to erosion by the river three weeks ago. Over a hundred farmers joined the human chain led by Chandra Badan Singha, the oldest man in the union, at 5:30pm to mount pressure on the authorities concerned to meet the demand. Kamalganj Upazila Parishad Chairman Rafiqur Rahman and Upazila Nirbahi Officer Md Mahmudul Haque assured the participants that they would take necessary steps as soon as possible to repair the dyke. Locals said over 250 metres of the embankment collapsed in Simultala area, letting water enter the eight villages. Local farmers are facing uncertainty about aman paddy cultivation as water still remains stagnant in vast areas of agricultural lands.

Pushpo Lal Kanu, chairman of Madhabpur Union Parishad, said eight villages were inundated following the collapse of the flood control embankment, but government has not taken any action yet to repair the embankment.

"The authorities concerned should take immediate steps to repair the embankment to prevent further damage," he said, adding that Water Development Board (WDB) repaired the embankment last year but it collapsed due to low quality work.

Contacted, Foizur Rob, executive engineer of WDB, told this correspondent that they had submitted a proposal in this regard to the authorities concerned. "We will repair the embankment when we get the funds,"
