What can you do to make your Eid worth your while? What can be done to bring in the ultimate spunky twist? With colours, dramatic dialogues, fight scenes, the vavavooms and the ooh lalas! While there are many activities that one can think of as prospective Eid plans- such as going out of the city, spending the day with the family indoors, making party-plans with friends, there is a large group of people around the city who wait, on the edges of their seats, for their favourite stars to hit the screens of Dhaka. To read about the craze of cinema during Eid, and what we can look forward to on the silver-screens, read our spotlight on pages 8 and 9.

3 THE AIRPORT WARRIORS
Is about the Airport Magistrates who are relentlessly fighting any irregularity or corruption within the airport.

10 NIAZ RAHIM: A STORY OF PRINCIPLE BEFORE PROFIT
Is about Niaz Rahim, son of late Abdur Rahim of the automobile battery brand 'RahimAfrooz', who has introduced the idea of welfare business in Bangladesh.

12 SHOPPING DOWN THE MEMORY LANE
Talks about the five famous places, where we almost put up a fight to go to when it comes to Eid shopping.

13 THE GOOD OLD DAYS OF PRINTING
Talks about the old ways of hand compositors through which the large books and lengthy newspapers were composed, printed and made readable to the readers in prior times.
