

MIM BOUND FOR BALI FOR MUSIC VIDEO

Popular actress Bidya Sinha Mim will be making her way to Bali on July 23, 2016. Her purpose for visiting Bali is to shoot three songs for the upcoming movie "Ami Tomar Hotey Chai", directed by Anonno Mamun, co-starring actor Bappi. The movie is expected to surprise the audience, according to the lead actress, and she has been extra careful when choosing new films after receiving the National Award.

Alongside performing in the big screen, she also starred in Eid special telefilm "Shei Meyeta" with singer-actor Tahsan. The Eid special received very good response from the audience.

SHIKARI Tops in Eid Release

Shakib Khan's "Shikari" is performing exceptionally well at the box office. The joint venture film between Bangladesh and India is doing good business and is currently at the top among Eid releases. "Badsha- The Don", starring Jeetendra Madnani of India and Nusrat Faria from Bangladesh, comes second right after "Shikari".

The budget of "Shikari" was approximately Tk 4.05 crore and that of "Badsha" was Tk 6 crore. "Shikari", co-starring Srabanti Chatterjee, has managed to earn Tk 1.5 crore on the first two days at the box office. "Badsha- The Don" has earned Tk 40 lakh on its first two days at the box office.

Shakib also starred in two other movies this Eid- "Mental" and "The Samraat" that earned Tk 1.87 crore and Tk 59 lakh respectively in the box office.

Sohana Saba's Controversial Role in Shororipu

Sohana Saba's latest movie "Shororipu" received positive response from audiences and critics. Her performance has been praised by most critics in Kolkata. However, there have been some controversies over Saba's explicit acting in the movie.

Shororipu is the first noir film in Bengali, capturing the six natural instincts that overcome a normal human being in particular circumstances, according to director Ayon Chakroborty. Film noir is a movie that explores dark stories using murky lighting and shadows to express the complex moral nature of the subject.

Being the first noir film in Bengali it has stirred some controversy over its dark and graphic nature. This is Saba's first film that has been released across the border. She is popular for her acting in Bangladeshi TV and movies.

