

ALIA BHATT & RANBIR KAPOOR to star in a superhero movie

The "Uda Punjab" actress Alia Bhatt will be featuring in a superhero film along side Bollywood heartthrob Ranbir Kapoor, to be directed by the popular, Ayan Mukherjee. The three reportedly met recently to talk about the movie, which is temporarily titled "Dragon". Ranbir is planned to play the superhero in the movie while Alia will be featured opposite to him as the female lead. Ayan Mukherjee plans on making a trilogy with Ranbir Kapoor and has high hopes for the action sequences in the film. Amitabh Bachchan has been approached for a role in the film reportedly; however, his confirmation is awaited.

SCARLETT JOHANSSON RANKED TOP HOLLYWOOD ACTRESS

Hollywood star Scarlett Johansson has been named Hollywood's highest-grossing-actress ever. Box Office Mojo, a website that tracks how much money movies make lists Johansson as the top-earning actress in Hollywood.

The "Black Widow" achieved this status with the help of the Avengers series and other Marvel blockbusters which includes Captain America: Civil War released earlier this year.

Even though she tops the actresses, Scarlett Johansson sits in 10th place overall according to Box Office Mojo. According to the website, Harrison Ford is the all-time champion earning nearly $4.9 billion in theatres.

Wreck-It-Ralph 2 set for March 2018

Popular animation movie "Wreck-It-Ralph" is planned to make a return to the theatres on March 9, 2018. Director Rich Moore and co-writer Phil Johnston announced the sequel to the 2012 animated film on Thursday morning through Facebook Live.

The original movie was about a video game villain going through a crisis of consciousness. John C. Reilly, who voiced Ralph, will return once again to voice the video game villain. The movie performed well at the box office making over $471.2 million and was critically acclaimed. The movie became the 12th highest grossing film of that year. "Wreck-It-Ralph 2" will be the feature debut for Phil Johnston who previously also co-wrote "Zootopia".