WHERE DID WE GO WRONG?

MD SHAHNAWAZ KHAN CHANDAN

When four Bangladeshi youths appeared in a video and threatened more terrorist attacks like the one that took place in Gulshan, the entire nation was shaken to the core. Despite having strong educational and economic backgrounds, these youths left their country and families to join the world's most notorious terrorist organisation. What made the Bangladeshi youths leave everything behind and spread terror in the country and the world as well? What are the factors in our society that are pushing our youths to radicalisation and extreme ideological organisations? To read more, go to pages 8 and 9.
