

Militants in jail under strict surveillance

Says AIG of Prisons; chief justice donates books to prisoners of Kashmir jail

Additional Inspector General of Prisons Col Iqbal Hassan yesterday said the militants currently held in jails are under strict surveillance.

They have no scope to hold meetings inside the prisons and use mobile phones to contact others, he said while talking to reporters at the office of the Supreme Court registrar general in the capital.

Iqbal was present at a press briefing where SC Registrar General Syed Aminul Islam was handing over books, worth Tk 1 lakh, to the Kashmir jail in Gazipur.

Chief Justice Surendra Kumar Sinha donated the books to prisoners of the jail.

Families of the detained militants can meet them inside the jail as it is treated as a correction centre, said Iqbal, adding that police would remain present while the families meet them.

A total of 122 kinds of books, mostly on the Liberation War, Kazi Nazrul Islam and Rabindranath Tagore, were donated to the jail, said Aminul.

UPCOMING HOME MINISTER-LEVEL MEETING Dhaka, Delhi focus on terrorism

DIPLOMATIC CORRESPONDENT

Against the backdrop of a series of deadly terror attacks, Bangladesh and India are considering a comprehensive and cooperative relationship to tackle terrorism and countering violent extremism in Bangladesh.

Diplomatic sources in Dhaka and New Delhi said that the two countries will discuss about further strengthening the partnership on sharing of information on terror networks and training and technological support to help Bangladesh security personnel.

Talking to The Daily Star yesterday, an Indian diplomat ruled out signing of any fresh counter-terrorism cooperation agreement as both the countries have already set mechanism to deal with terrorism.

He said the two countries have already signed an agreement on counter-terrorism in 2010, which is "very comprehensive" and the July 28 home minister level discussion between the two countries will be based on that.

The diplomat said India's president, prime minister and foreign minister have all assured support to Prime Minister Sheikh Hasina's efforts in combating terror after the latest attacks at a Gulshan cafe and Kishoreganj.

Issues like, growing activities of terrorists and extremists, radicalisation of youths and cross-border crimes will top the meeting, to be held in New Delhi on Thursday.

Home Minister Asaduzzaman Khan Kamal will lead the delegation level talks with his Indian counterpart Rajnath Singh.

Kamal will leave for New Delhi for a three-day visit tomorrow.

The Indian diplomat said the home ministers will discuss on effective joint efforts against militancy and cooperation between the two countries to identify and exchange information of any sources related to financing of terrorism.

India is expected to offer exchange of professional expertise and training of security and law enforcement personnel, he said.

SIRAJGANJ WAPDA CANAL Demolish 302 structures: HC

STAFF CORRESPONDENT

The High Court yesterday directed the government to demolish and evict within 60 days 302 illegal structures built on the land of Water and Power Development (Wapda) canal in Belkuchi area of Sirajganj.

Earlier, the Sirajganj district administration submitted a report to the HC, saying that 302 structures were constructed illegally grabbing the land of Wapda canal in the area.

Yesterday, the court also asked the government to submit a report complying with the order to it and fixed October 30 for passing next order in this regard.

The bench of Justice Moyeenul Islam Chowdhury and Justice Alish Ranjan Das possessed the order while hearing a petition filed by Human Rights and Peace for Bangladesh (HRPB) seeking necessary orders on the government to demolish the illegal structures.

Following the petition, the HC on March 3 ordered the deputy commissioner of Sirajganj to form a team to conduct a survey to identify whether any illegal structure was built on the land, HRPB's lawyer Manzill Murshid told The Daily Star. And, the district administration in June submitted the report on the structures in line with the order, he added.

During yesterday's hearing, Manzill told the HC that the structures need to be demolished to protect the Wapda canal under the Water Bodies Act-2000, Water Act-2013 and Article 18 (A) of the constitution.

Secretaries to the ministries of forest and environment, and LGRD, director general of the Department of Environment, Belkuchi municipality mayor, deputy commissioner and superintendent of police of Sirajganj, upazila nirbahi officer and assistant commissioner (land) of Belkuchi, and officer-in-charge of Belkuchi Police Station have been made respondents to the order.

such projects, which is against public interest, for committing corruption and amassing money.

"As the countrymen are panicked because of militancy and terrorism, the ethnic minority people are also distressed due to the fear of eviction," he said.

The government should publish a white paper on corruption and irregularities of influential people regarding forest resources, Pankaj emphasised.

Bangladesh Adivasi Forum General Secretary Sanjeeb Drong said ethnic minority people are the victims of different sorts of discrimination and deprivation and it is the state's responsibility to protect and ensure their equal rights.

Jatiya Adivasi Parishad president Rabindranath Soren said many are being compelled to leave the country due to such evictions and other sorts of repression and injustice.

Human Rights Defenders' Forum and rights activists under the banner of citizen delegation jointly organised the press conference, while Institute of Environment and Development (IED) and Kapeng Foundation assisted them.

OUR CORRESPONDENT, Chandpur

Tipped off, a team of police raided the school and arrested him with 67 leaflets, said Rashedur Rahman, sub-inspector of Chandpur Model Police Station.

Sufian of Ketuwa village in the upazila is known to be a devoted member of Jamaat-e-Islami though he does not hold any post in the party, added the SI.

another case filed under the special powers act in which he was arrested on July 19, reasoned prosecutor Rezia Sultana Chaman.

The tribunal case's investigation officer already "found evidence" against Khalilur, of Sadhua village under Pagla Police Station, during a probe beginning on October 16, 2014, she said submitting the petition.

The three-member tribunal led by Justice Anwarul Haque fixed October 25 to pass the next order.

In the Satkhira case, Chaman sought three months submitting a report on the progress in investigations beginning on June 16, 2015 against Abdul Khaleq Mandol who was shown arrested on August 25, 2015 following a petition of the prosecution.

The prosecution says the probe "found evidence" of the involvement of the incumbent ameer of Jamaat-e-Islami's Satkhira unit in crimes, including murder and rape.

The tribunal's investigation agency says he was involved with Islami Chhatra Sangha, the then student wing of Jamaat, before joining Razakar Bahini, the Pakistani occupation army's auxiliary force.
