

Kangana Ranaut

to star in "Jhansi Ki Rani"

"Queen" star Kangana Ranaut will be playing the famous role of "Rani Lakshmbai" in Ketan Mehta's biopic "Jhansi Ki Rani". According to the director, the movie will be internationally co-produced with international crew and cast. The director plans on shooting the movie at Jhansi, Varanasi, and Gwalior and some studios.

"Tanu Weds Manu" star will be seen horse-riding and sword-fighting in the film, for which she will start training soon. The actress mentioned that once she starts shooting for this film, she would not sign another film until mid next year.

The actress has previously received three national awards for her performance as Best Supporting Actress for "Fashion", Best Actress for "Queen" and "Tanu Weds Manu Returns".

LIZZY CAPLAN AND TOM RILEY ENGAGED

Lizzy Caplan and Tom Riley have got engaged not less than six months after making their official red carpet unveiling as a couple. The British actor popped the question to the "Mean Girls" actress in May at New York City. The actors first met in January 2015 in London where Lizzie was filming and confirmed their relationship after one year, as they appeared as a couple to the 2016 Prague Opera.

There is no word yet on when the couple will tie the knot, but from the looks of it the "Now You See Me 2" star has already got the future planned.

Riley is casted in Amazon's new series "The Collection", and Caplan's fourth season of "Masters of Sex" will premiere in September.

NEW STAR TREK TV SERIES COMING IN 2017

The popular TV series "Star Trek" will be having its latest reboot in 2017, arriving on Netflix where each episode will be becoming available worldwide within 24 hours of its US premiere on CBS.

The series will be created by Brian Fuller and screenwriter Alex Kurtzman, who mentioned that the show will be based on the original 1966 series by Gene Roddenberry. No casting has been announced yet for the series, however, Kurtzman's presence on the series suggest that there could be a degree of connection between this series and the current film franchise. The series will introduce new characters, with creative new worlds and civilizations.

The series is set to be shot in Toronto in September.

