MITU MURDER CASE Bhola remanded afresh, 7 arrested so far: CMP

STAFF CORRESPONDENT, Ctg

A Chittagong court yesterday granted a two-day fresh remand for Ehteshamul Haque alias Haniful Haque alias Bhola in a case filed over the murder of Mahmuda Khanam Mitu, the wife of police superintendent Babul Akter.

The court of Chittagong Metropolitan Magistrate Abu Salem Mohammad Noman passed the order after police prayed for a 10-day remand for interrogating Bhola, said Nirmalendu Bikash Chakraborty, additional deputy commissioner (prosecution) of Chittagong Metropolitan Police (CMP).

Earlier, police interrogated Bhola taking him on a three-day remand granted by a Chittagong court on July 17, said court sources.

According to CMP, Bhola had supplied the arms used in the murder.

On June 27, he was arrested in the port city's Bakalia area.

Police are yet to unearth the motive behind the murder and arrest prime suspect Kamrul Shikder alias Musa even after a month of the incident.

Musa's wife Panna Akter claimed that police picked him up from in front of the house of one of his relatives in Bandar area on June 22, but police denied it.

Two other suspects -- Nurul Islam alias Rashed and Md Nurunnabi -- were killed in a "gunfight" with police in the district's Rangunia upazila on July 5.

On June 26, two suspected killers -- Anwar and Motalebb Miya alias Wasim --

BCL LEADER KILLING
Six Comilla University students being quizzed

A CORRESPONDENT, Comilla

The case filed over the killing of Comilla University unit Bangladesh Chhatra League (BCL) leader Khalid Saifullah has been transferred to Detective Branch of Police yesterday.

The university authorities filed the case against 150 unnamed people on Monday. Six students of the university are being interrogated at Comilla DB office.

Khalid, a final year honours student of marketing and organising secretary of Kazi Nazrul Islam hall unit of BCL, was hit by bullets during a gunfight between two factions of the university unit BCL at Bangabandhu Sheikh Mujibur Rahman hall of the university early Monday.

He died at Dhaka Medical College Hospital on that day. At least 10 students were injured during the clash.

militancy, he added.

Former secretary Md Nazrul Islam has been appointed as a new full-time member while five others as honorary members.

They are Prof Meghna Guhathakurta, a former faculty of international relations department of Dhaka University; Banchita Chakma, former principal of Rangamati Government College; Prof Akhter Hussain, chairman of public administration department of DU; Enamul Hoque Chowdhury, former press minister at Bangladesh High Commission in New Delhi; and Begum Nurunnahar Usmani, a former senior sessions judge. The chairman will get facilities including salary and other allowances equivalent to those of a judge of the Appellate Division of the Supreme Court, and the full time members to those of a judge of the High Court Division of the SC.

After obtaining his masters degree from DU, Kazi Reazul joined the civil service and retired as a secretary in 2006.

Doctors of the hospital gave the baby a name too after arranging a naming ceremony for him on July 28, where he was named Aayan Afraz, he added.

Some people talked to the hospital authorities for adopting the boy but the authorities asked them to go through the necessary process first, Gafur said.

Abdul Jalil, officer-in-charge of Badda Police Station, told this correspondent last night that they were yet to find Aayan's parents.
