

PARINEETI CHOPRA to Star in "Circus"

Actress Parineeti Chopra will be seen in Bosco Martis' "Circus". The movie will be the choreographer turned director, Bosco Martis' debut which is based on a musical drama. Also included in the cast is Suniel Shetty who will be playing Parineeti's father. The movie will focus on the relationship between a father and a daughter. A child actor will star in the film to portray the character of younger Parineeti. The director mentioned that the film was still in its initial stages of production and that the castings of actors are still underway.

Parineeti was last seen starring in this year's film "Dishoom", in a cameo which included Varun Dhawan and John Abraham as the main actors.

.....
Source: Bollywood Hungama

MANOJ BAJPAYEE WINS BEST ACTOR AT SOUTH ASIAN FILM FESTIVAL

One of the most versatile actors in Bollywood, Manoj Bajpayee recently bagged the award of Best Actor at the prestigious Mosaic International South Asian Film Festival for his outstanding performance in "Aligarh". Bajpayee continues to receive critical acclamation for his exceptional portrayal of a homosexual professor in the film.

Inspired by true events, "Aligarh" talks about society's norms regarding one's choice of sexuality and its acceptance that have been a subject of discussion for a long time. In the film, a journalist sets out to explore the story of a professor who is suspended from his college on grounds of homosexuality. Bajpayee played the protagonist in the film, while Rajkummar Rao portrays the role of the journalist.

.....
Source: Bollywood Hungama

KEVIN HART'S New Rap Career

Popular comedian Kevin Hart will be seen in a completely different avatar this fall. Hart signed a deal with Motown Records for releasing an album under his alter-ego, Chocolate Droppa. After having a great run entertaining audiences with his jokes, Hart has decided to entertain with his rhymes now. The comedian has not released music before, but has showcased his rap skills through videos posted online. The 37 year-old actor, comedian, writer and producer from Philadelphia has seen consecutive success in recent years with his movies "Central Intelligence", "Ride Along" and "Think Like a Man", along with sold-out comedy tours all over the globe.

.....
Source: Access Hollywood

