

Arijit Singh to Sing for SALMAN KHAN

Popular singer Arijit Singh will be singing a solo for Salman Khan starring "Tubelight". The movie will be directed by Kabir Khan.

There has been a cold war between the singer and the actor for a while starting with Arijit Singh posting an apology to Salman for offending him at an awards function few years ago.

Not accepting the apology, Arijit was expelled from a song in "Sultan" and a song from "Kick", both of which are Salman starrers. Their relationship has apparently been fixed and so Arijit has been employed to sing in "Tubelight".
