ACTIVITIES (DATED AUGUST 22, 2016)

KEY:
Formal vs. Informal
1.) Formal 2.) Formal 3.) Informal; I should not have changed it. 4.) Informal; I apologize but I am unable to help you with your problem because it is extremely difficult. 5.) Informal; Dear Mr. Smith, How are you?
Putting It All Together (answers may vary)
1.) Dear Professor Smith, I am sorry to inform you, but I will not be able to attend class today because I am ill. Would it be possible for you to let me know what I have missed? Thank you for your help and I will see you in class on Wednesday.
Sincerely, Jason Jones
This is just one of the many ways to write about this particular topic. However, make sure to use formal language, no "see ya." Also, eliminate all contractions. If possible, try to ask a question. For this particular topic it is good to show your professor that you are truly sorry for missing class and want to know what you are missing.
2.) Dear Ms. Blue,
I was searching online for a company that makes business cards. I came across your website and am extremely impressed. However, I do have a few questions. If I were to order only 500 instead of the advertised 1000 business cards, how much would that cost? Furthermore, I would like my business card to be colored and also include the logo of my company. Are those requests possible, and if so, how much extra will they be? Due to my request for color and a logo I would like to preview the card before receiving all 500. Is that feasible? I appreciate your assistance and look forward to hearing back from you.

Sincerely, Jessica Higgins Managing Partner of First Financial Assistance (555) 555-5555
This example was not as poorly written as number 1. However, it can still be written better. For the salutation you do not want to use the person's first-name unless you are friends. Attempt to use more formal language and sentence structure. For this specific topic, praise and understanding is important. Since this topic revolved around a person working for a specific company, they needed to expand on their signature.
3.) Dear Hiring Manager,
My name is Max Oates. I recently graduated in May from Menlo College with a Bachelor of Science in Business Management and a concentration in Marketing. I was recommended to contact you concerning job opportunities from my advisor Dr. Nancy Drew. I believe that I would be an excellent candidate for a job. I have taken many courses to prepare me for a job in marketing. These courses include Principles of Marketing, Marketing Research, Strategic Marketing Management, Consumer Behavior, and Internet Marketing. I have also recently interned at Google as an Internet Marketing Researcher. Through my many marketing classes and internship, I have learned to be a strong team member that values time management and communication. I believe that I can be a valued asset to your company. My phone number and alternative email are listed below. I look forward to hearing from you.
