Railway staff confine two magistrates

For arresting fellows for scalping tickets STAFF CORRESPONDENT,

Railway employees kept two magistrates confined and halted rail communications for nearly two hours at Rajshahi Railway Station yesterday after a mobile court caught three booking assistants redhanded for scalping tickets.

The mobile court led by executive magistrates Samar Kumar Pal and Faysal Haque assisted by railway police raided the station around 6:00pm. According to Rab, police and district administration, they caught three booking staff and four outsiders for selling tickets on black market. As they were about to take the held persons out of the station, the railway staff surrounded them and halted the scheduled trains. The magistrates were freed after they released the held persons in presence of former Rajshahi mayor and Rajshahi city Awami League

Khairuzzaman Liton, who "happened to be present". "The railway staff threatened to go on a strike and said their jobs would be at stake if they were arrested,"

General Secretary AHM

Liton said. He also claimed to have received phone calls from top officials of railway ministry for their release. It was decided unanimously to release them and take actions after Eid, he added.

Contacted, ASP Tofail Hossain of Rab-5 said, a Rab team rescued the two magistrates around 8:00pm.

Additional District Magistrate of Rajshahi Md Sabet Ali however denied their confinement. "The magistrates conducted a drive and warned the staff to stay away from any irregularities," he said.

the collection of animal trash at sources.

Asked how the residents will know where their designated slaughtering site is, he said, "We will distribute 3.65 leaflets with the help of local councillors and propagate through miking."

They also published public awareness notices in this regard in newspapers yesterday.

They have readied a total of 3,230 cleaning workers including 2,225, who are their regular employees, to get the cattle markets cleaned and wastes of slaughtered animals removed within 48 hours beginning from 2:00pm on the Eid day, the mayor added.

Among other equipment and vehicles, they have 200 waste carrying trucks including 70 hired to remove the waste, he said.

Along with a control room at every zone, there will be a central control room set up in Mirpur with the telephone no 9004734 and another in Gulshan with telephone no 9861393 for those requiring waste removal service.

There will also be adequate van service all across the north city to help waste removal at household level, he said.

The DNCC officials and employees brought out an awareness campaign after the conference.

zila parishad, including its chairman.

Zila parishad or district council is the legacy of the statutory local government system introduced in the sub-continent about 130 years back during the British India era.

The government recently hinted that it may arrange elections to zila parishads within this year.

One of yesterday's speakers, Prof Tofail Ahmed, a social scientist and a local governance expert, said the electoral college system was disenfranchising the general citizen over choosing their representatives for zila parishads.

Every eligible voter of the district should be given a chance to choose their representatives in the zila parishad, said Tofail, also a member of the executive committee of SHUJAN.

Prof Tofail also said people did not vote and give mandate to the existing local government representatives to be members of "electoral college" to elect zila parishad members on their behalf.

"We request the government to amend the law in order to give back the right to vote to the people to elect their representatives for the zila parishads," said SHUJAN Secretary Badiul Alam Majumder in his speech.

There were efforts since independence to bring political appointees at the district by all subsequent governments but no clear step was initiated to organise zila parishads as per direction of the constitution, he said. Despite regular budgetary allocation, the general public does not know the reason why successive governments in the last 45 years did not show any concern for reorganising zila parishads into proper, functional local government institutions, added Badiul. He suggested that the government divide the whole district into a reasonable number of constituencies or wards based proportionately on the number of voters and population. He also criticised the government for making lawmakers advisers to zila parishads, saying the lawmakers would interfere in zila parishad activities in view of their political and personal interests.

Some 13,000 out of 15,000 required bins have been distributed in Uttar Pathantuli Ward, and the remaining bins will be distributed within a couple of days, said its councillor Md Javed.

CCC sources said all the 41 wards will be brought under this initiative by the end of this year.

At first, trash will be collected from all households and shops. Then conservancy workers will carry them to designated dumping grounds by trucks, added the sources.

As per the information provided by the conservancy department, the city which is inhabited by around six million people produces about 1,600 tonnes of garbage each day.

Around 10 lakh bins, and 2,000 additional workers and 2,000 rickshaw vans will be needed to start the work in full swing in all the wards, CCC Chief Conservancy Officer Shafigul Mannan Siddique said.
