Nahid wants stern steps against stalking

UNB, Dhaka

Education Minister Nurul Islam Nahid yesterday urged the authorities concerned, including law enforcement agencies, to take strong measures to check stalking and thus help ensure a congenial academic atmosphere for girls.

college-going girls are now worried following the news of a stalker's attack on a schoolgirl in Madaripur. The minister said stalking must be eliminated from society to implement various programmes of the government aimed at expanding female education in the country.

"A social resistance must be created against eve-teasing, and necessary steps should be taken to ensure the security of female students..." he told a meeting arranged by the Education Ministry at Bangladesh Secretariat in the capital. Nahid said guardians of school- and menace only by enforcing laws, but a social movement must be created to stop it. Education Secretary Md Sohrab Hossain and senior officials of the ministry were present at the meeting.

Fellows seek exemplary punishment for killer

Accused sent to jail

STAR REPORT

Education Minister Nurul Islam Nahid yesterday directed the local administration to take legal actions to ensure punishment for the killer of Madaripur schoolgirl Nitu Mandal, reports UNB.

NITU MURDER

upazila in Madaripur. Alleged stalker Milon Mandal waylaid Nitu on her way to school and hit her with a sharp weapon in the abdomen, leaving her critically injured. Later, she died on way to hospital.

The minister talked to the deputy commissioner and police superintendent of Madaripur over phone and asked them to take necessary steps to ensure punishment of the killer.

He also expressed deep sympathy to the bereaved family members of Nitu, a hand-out said. On Sunday, Nitu was hacked to death by a stalker at Aisar Kandi village in Kalkini

Local people caught Milon and handed him over to police. Meanwhile, teachers and students of Nabogram High School formed a human chain demanding exemplary punishment for Milon at the school in Madaripur, reports a correspondent. He was sent to jail after police produced him before a judicial magistrate court following a case filed by the victim's father on Sunday night.
