Raped college girl attempts suicide

OUR CORRESPONDENT, Patuakhali

A college girl, who was gang-raped over three months ago, tried to commit suicide at her house in Kachipara village under Baufal upazila on Sunday. She is now undergoing treatment at Barisal Sher-e-Bangla Medical College Hospital. On June 11, a gang of six raped the girl and her mother in a trawler on Tentulia River in the upazila. The incident took place when they were going to a relative's house in the area. Later, a case was filed, accusing six leaders and activists of Najirpur union Swachhchasebak League in this connection, said police. The girl's father said she tried to commit suicide by hanging herself from the ceiling of her room over a trivial family matter on Sunday night. Seeing this, her mother rescued the victim and sent her to the upazila health complex. Later, she was shifted to Barisal Sher-e-Bangla Medical College Hospital for better treatment, he said. Wishing anonymity, a close relative, however, said the accused often threatened the girl to withdraw the case. Two days after the gang-rape, police arrested two people, including Najirpur union Swachhchasebak League Vice President Nur Alam, said OC Azam Khan Faruqee of Baufal Police Station. They are also raiding different areas to arrest the other accused, said the police official.

Huge croplands lost to Teesta, Dharla

About 450 bighas of land with standing aman paddy goes into rivers in Lalmonirhat

OUR CORRESPONDENT, Lalmonirhat

The Teesta and Dharla rivers devoured huge croplands in 12 villages under three upazilas of the district in the last one week. The fresh erosion has taken an alarming turn in the last 6/7 days devouring several homesteads and a huge tract of cultivable land leaving a good number of people in utter uncertainty. Due to the recent erosions, about 450 bighas of land with standing aman paddy have been devoured by the two rivers. The affected villages are Kurul, Kamaour, Etapota, Char Kulaghat, Shiberkuti, Dakkhin Shiberkuti, Bagdora and Kalmati in Sadar upazila, Kutirpar and Balapara in Aditmar upazila, and Dawabari and Sindurma in Hatibandha upazila. Amjad Hossain, 55, of Shiberkuti village, said the Dharla River has already devoured his two bighas of aman paddy field in the last three days while the rest two bighas face serious threat. Farmer Sabur Ali, 48, of Etapota village, said the villagers are passing their days in constant fear of losing the rest of the croplands if the authorities concerned do not take immediate steps to check the erosion. The Teesta River has already devoured five out of ten bighas of aman cropland while the rest are facing threat of devouring, said Faridul Islam, 55, of Dawabari village. Kulaghat Union Parishad Chairman Idris Ali said he had already informed the authorities concerned about the worsening situation but they did not take any initiative to protect them despite repeated pleas. Lalmonirhat Water Development Board Executive Engineer Abu Bakkar said they were conducting protection work to check erosion at the major vulnerable points, but it is not possible to protect the entire area due to fund limit.

Rigan, also known as Rafiul Islam Rafi and Ripon and Hasan, divulged the information to interrogators, according to officials of the Counter Terrorism and Transnational Crime unit of the Dhaka Metropolitan Police (DMP). The 20-year-old "Neo JMB" operative was caught wounded during a police raid at Taj Manzeel, also known as Jahaj Building, in Kalyanpur on July 26. On Sunday, Rigan gave his confessional statement before Metropolitan Magistrate Sadbir Yasir Ahsan Chowdhury. During interrogation by the officials of the DMP unit, Rigan said one Robin gave them the firearms training and lessons in "motivational classes" at the dens. Rigan wanted to go to Syria but Robin used to tell him that it would take some time. Robin also told him to do "something big" in Bangladesh to show off power before going to Syria, said one of the interrogators, quoting Rigan's statement. On Robin's instructions, the militants in Kalyanpur were preparing to conduct a massive attack in the country, said the interrogator, wishing not to be named. Before being radicalised, Rigan, according to investigators, was introduced to several Shibir activists in Bogra in 2011. He used to offer his prayers with the Shibir men in his village in Jamilnagar of Bogra. About three to four months before his HSC exams in April, 2015, he met militant recruiter Sabbir on Facebook. Rigan had passed SSC exams in 2013 securing GPA-5 and later starting attending coaching classes at Retina Coaching Centre in Bogra. "But I read more than I wrote on Facebook, liked posts, and kept chatting with Sabbir," said an official, quoting Rigan. He said Sabbir convinced him to go to Syria to join "the war against America and its allies" to save the Muslims there. Sabbir also convinced two of his friends, Masud and Shihab, to do the same. On July 23 last year, Rigan left home telling his mother and sister that he was going to his coaching centre. But, he went to Shibganj Bus Stand with Masud and Shihab where Sabbir was waiting for them. "Sabbir brought the three of us to Dhaka on a bus from Shibganj. It was evening. We were asked not to look around and we complied," the official quoted him as saying. During the group's one-year stay in the capital, they changed their locations at least five times, investigators claimed. While staying in the dens, Rigan was introduced to Robin, Imran, Sohan, Iqbal, Obhi, Tapas, Abir and Nayeem. He also told interrogators that two to three people unknown to him frequented the dens. Interrogators suspect that those people could be key militant leaders. Two weeks prior to the police raid, the militants moved to the fourth floor of the six-storey building in Kalyanpur, investigators claimed. Rigan told investigators that 11 militants were in the apartment during the raid. Of them, Iqbal fled firing his AK-22 while Rigan was injured and captured. Marriage registrar jailed OUR CORRESPONDENT, Bogra A mobile court here sentenced a marriage registrar to seven days' imprisonment for holding marriage of a minor schoolgirl in Dhunat upazila on Sunday night.
