

LA LA LAND

to be Released on December 9

Emma Stone and Ryan Gosling starrer "La La Land" will release in limited theatres on December 9. Director Damien Chazelle's romantic-drama's wide release date however, remains on December 16. The film received critical acclamation and stole the spotlight at many film festivals that include Venice Film Festival, Toronto Film Festival and Telluride Film Festival. In the process, Emma Stone bagged the Best Actress Award for her role as actress/playwright Mia at Venice Film Festival. The story is about a couple, struggling pianist Sebastian and actress Mia, whose relationship goes downhill as their careers bloom. The film also stars J.K. Simmons, who previously worked with Damien Chazelle in the 2004 film "Whiplash".

.....
Source: Variety

JULIA ROBERTS

to Star in Upcoming Film "Framed"

Actress Julia Roberts will be starring in "Framed", where she plays the role of a PTA mom who was the target of an uncanny revenge plot. The movie is based on a real-life person, Kelli Peters, whose story caught the attention of the nation and was turned into a book titled "I'll Get You". The book will serve as a basis for this film.

The Hollywood actress has taken on mainly maternal roles lately. In "Mother's Day", she played a woman who had to give up her child at birth. The actress is currently filming an adaptation of R.J. Palacio's book "Wonder". The film will have Jacob Tremblay of the 2015 film "Room" as her son.

.....
Source: Variety

SAIF ALI KHAN

to star in the Hindi remake of "Chef"

Bollywood star Saif Ali Khan will be seen starring in the Hindi adaptation of Jon Favreau's film "Chef". The story revolves around a chef who starts his own food truck after quitting his job as head chef at a reputed restaurant. The actor will be travelling to several places in India that will include Punjab, Goa and Delhi, as the film is about food and travel. Saif is learning important culinary skills such as stewing, chopping, etc for the film. The movie is directed by Raja Krishna Menon. The popular actor was last seen in Kabir Khan's 2015 action-thriller "Phantom".

.....
Source: Bollywood Hungama