

Riteish Deshmukh to Star in Nishikant Kamal's upcoming Marathi film

Actor Ritesh Deshmukh will be starring in director Nishikanth Kamal's upcoming Marathi movie "Mauli". The actor will be playing the lead role in the film and will also be producing the film, which is a comedy-thriller. The film is in its initial stages of preparations and will start shooting by the end of December. Ritesh made his Marathi debut with Nishikanth Kamal's 2014 film "Lai Bhaari".

Nishikant Kamal is also writing a Hindi romantic film at the moment, apart from "Mauli". His last film "Madaari", starring Irrfan Khan received raving reviews from critics and fans. Riteish Deshmukh was recently seen in "Banjo", which included actress Nargis Fakhri and was directed by Ravi Jadhav.

Source: Bollywood Hungama

JAKE GYLLENHAAL AND CAREY MULLIGAN

to Star in Paul Dano's "Wildlife"

Jake Gyllenhaal and Carey Mulligan are set to star in actor Paul Dano's directorial debut "Wildlife". The story is based on a Richard Ford novel, and is the tale of a boy who sees his parents' marriage falling apart after his mother finds another man. The script for the film has been written by Paul Dano and Zoe Kazan. This will be Gyllenhaal and Mulligan's first on-screen appearance together.

Jake Gyllenhaal's last film "Nocturnal Animals" was premiered at the Toronto Film Festival. He is currently shooting for his upcoming film "Life". Mulligan was last seen in "Suffragette" and recently finished production for "Mudbound", which will have Jason Clarke opposite to her.

Source: Variety

PRIYANKA CHOPRA to Collaborate with Vashu Bhagnani for her Debut Punjabi Production

Actress Priyanka Chopra will be collaborating with producer Vashu Bhagnani for the Punjabi film, "Savann". The story revolves around a young NRI who decides to return to India to search for his roots. The actress ventured into film production in 2014, starting her own company Purple Pebble Pictures, focusing on regional movies. The initial parts of the film were shot in Canada and the later parts began on September 5 in Chandigarh. Madhu Chopra, Priyanka's mother, has co-produced the film. The film has been directed by Karaan Guliani and stars Amrinder Gill, Ranjit Bawa, and Simi Chehail.

The actress will be making her Hollywood film debut in 2017 with the highly anticipated film "Baywatch", starring Dwayne "The Rock" Johnson and Zac Efron.

Source: Bollywood Hungama

