BAGDOOM'S CUSHIONS 101

If you are tired with a boring and plain room, then it is time to change things up.

However, a fresh paint isn't always feasible. Have no fear, though. The easiest and cheapest way to bring life and zeal to your room is to bring in the cushions. Cushions can complement other colours in your room and can be as effective as adding a new piece of artwork or re-painting your walls.

For your convenience Bagdoom has a guide for everyone to select the correct cushions for your home.

DO NOT MATCH THE CUSHIONS WITH THE BASE THEY ARE PLACED ON

Contrast them so that they stand out and not become just a part of the rest of the furniture without making a difference.

SELECT A COLOUR PALETTE

If the colours you select are pulling in the colours around your room, it will create a harmonious and stylish look instead of a complete mismatched scenario. Choose cushions based on or having a little relation to some colours already existing in your room.

Select patterns, styles and designs for cushions covers.

Cushion cover patterns and designs will differ for different interior looks. For a traditional look, go for embroidery, block prints, traditional motifs, grameen checks; opt for velvet, stone works, Victorian designs for a more royal and elegant look.

Modern themes often require contemporary designs of stripes, polka dots, patterns. Cushion covers with quotations, writings, prints of human figure or objects are also trending these days.

SELECT SHAPES AND SIZES

Bigger and even smaller ones together can make things interesting depending on where and how they are being placed. To add some depth, go for different shapes and sizes of cushions like rectangle, round or bolsters-like ones.

SELECT THE NUMBER OF CUSHIONS

The amount of cushions to be placed depends on the style of the interior you choose and the size of the furniture or place they will be put in.

Browse through www.bagdoom.com and shop away for different kinds of cushion covers for your cushions in the Home Décor section right away to get the best there is.

Sayambara by Shirin Karim

Sayambara is known for their minimalistic approach to their designs and bringing out the personality of the individual wearing their designer items - rather than focusing just only on the dress itself.

Shirin Karim has been designing saris, shalwar kamiz and kurta for Sayambara for the past 12 years. It is a homegrown business, mainly attracting customers who are interested in simple, yet elegant clothing. Sayambara does only one exhibition every year, where they showcase their products on a broad scale; along with one exhibition that is held in Bangladesh, Shirin Karim also holds exhibitions abroad, like Delhi, London, etc.

Sayambara aims to promote more 'deshi' products and so all the saris designed are made with clothes made in Bangladesh. She works with applique, cut work, nakshi kantha as well as embroidery designs. The designs are usually worked on cotton, half silk, pure silk, Jamdani, etc.

Sayambara maintains their reputation of being exclusive and one sari design is not made on more than two pieces, and thus each piece has its own charisma to it. Sayambara designs blouse exclusively for each of their customers and the materials are matched and crafted by their expert tailors.

And since Shirin Karim is a fashionista herself, customers are always welcome to ask fashion tips from the designer herself! Their saris range from Tk 3,000 to Tk 20,000 and their shalwar kamiz prices range from Tk 3,000 to Tk 10,000.

So, if you're looking for simple and minimal approach to looking your best, a visit to Sayambara is a must for you, since fashion is all about feeling good about what you wear and feeling confident in it!
