

Chris Hemsworth and Michael Shannon to Star in War Drama "Horse Soldiers"

Actors Chris Hemsworth and Michael Shannon will be sharing screen in the upcoming film "Horse Soldiers". Based on Doug Stanton's book, the movie narrates the story of a U.S. Special Forces team and their captain, who are sent to the rocky region of Afghanistan weeks after the 9/11 incident. The movie will be directed by Nicolai Fuglsig and the script has been done by Peter Craig and Ted Tally.

Hemsworth is currently shooting "Thor: Ragnarok", after which he will be moving to "Avengers: Infinity War". He will also be seen in the upcoming "Star Trek" instalment, reprising his role as Captain Kirk's father. Shannon will be seen in upcoming films that include "The Current War", "Nocturnal Animals", and "Loving".

Source: Variety

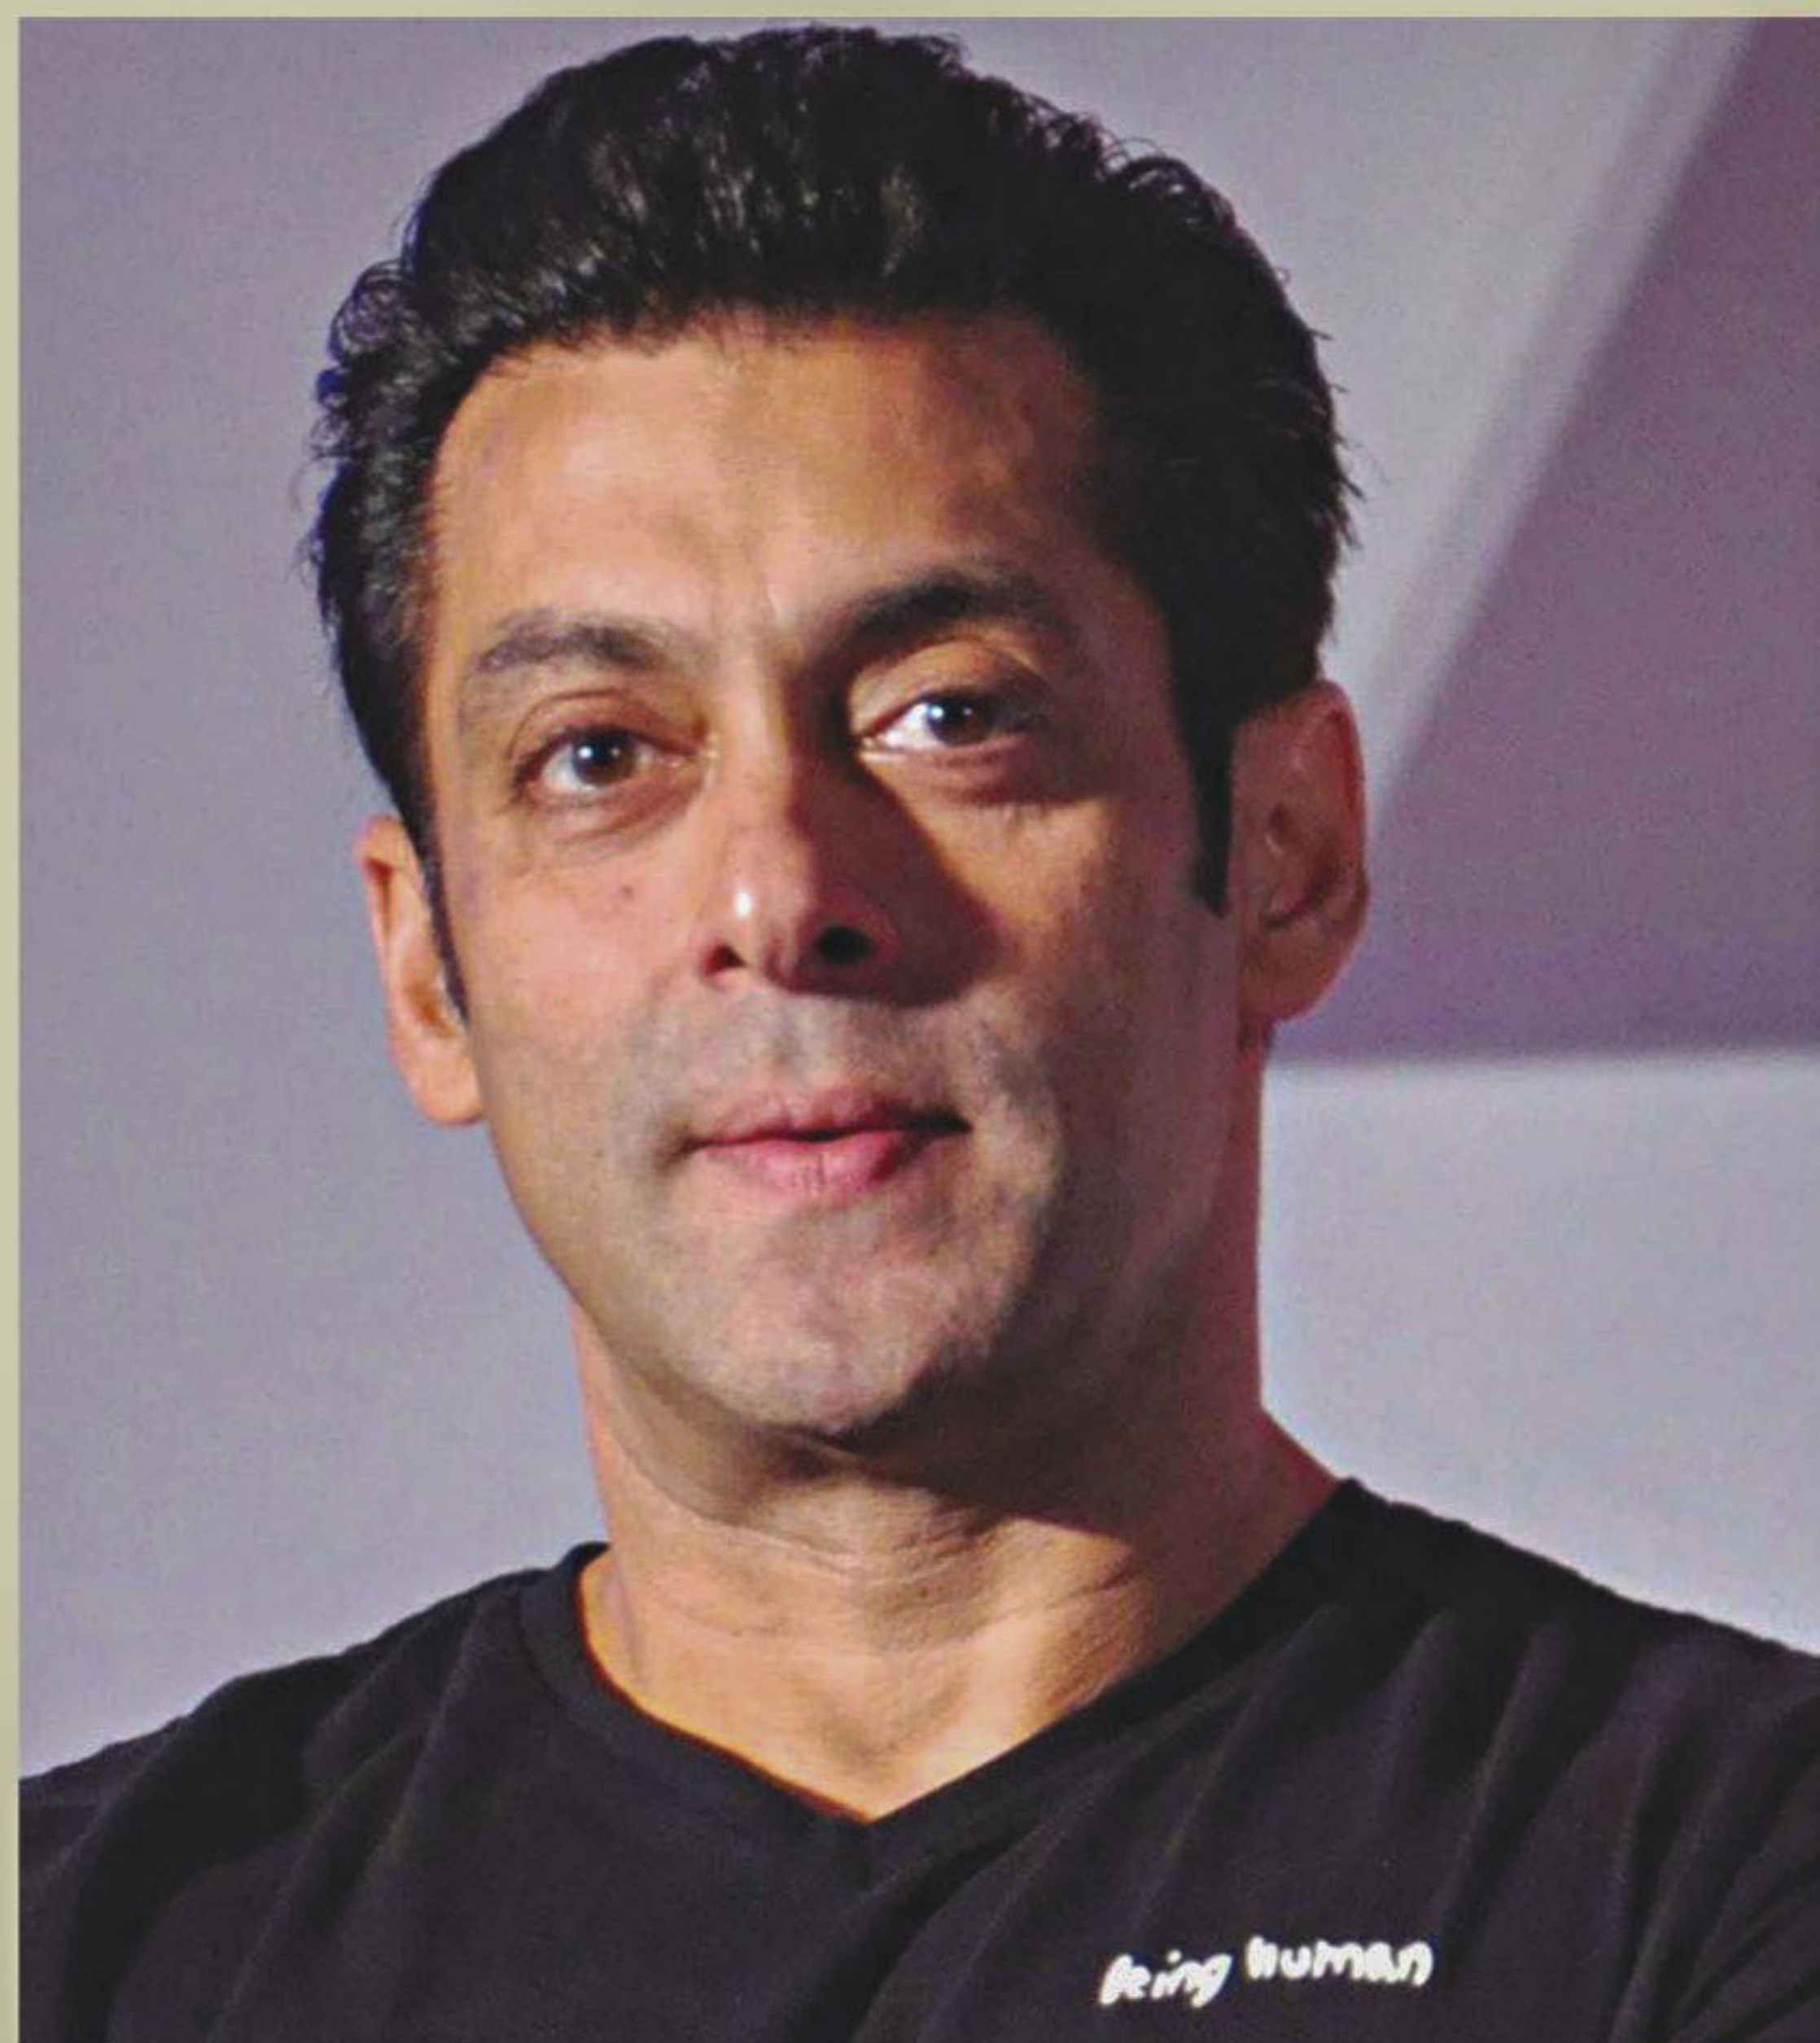

SALMAN KHAN Launches Being Human Jewellery

Actor Salman Khan recently launched his jewellery venture named Being Human Jewellery, along with his sister Arpita and nephew Ahil. The actor collaborated with Style Quotient Jewellery to introduce the line of jewellery, bringing in his charity Being Human's core values of love, care, joy, share, help and hope in this venture. The collection is divided into two sections with one being value priced, and the other one being premium price, ranging between Rs.

5000 and Rs. 50000. Each piece of jewellery would include a personal message from Salman Khan, thanking people for their purchase of the jewellery.

Salman's charity Being Human has previously launched large numbers of merchandise, which has seen positive response from the customers. The actor will be seen in the upcoming film "Tubelight", directed by Kabir Khan.

Source: Bollywood Hungama

DEEPIKA PADUKONE becomes Asia's most followed woman on Twitter

Bollywood actress Deepika Padukone has taken media by storm by becoming the most followed woman on Twitter in Asia, with a whopping 16 million followers. The actress surpassed Asian celebrity Agnez Mo to secure this spot. Her journey has been inspiring for her fans for the strong characters she portrayed in her films and for her openness to talking about her own fight with depression, making her a very relatable personality among the fans. Deepika was recently listed in Forbes top 100 highest paid actresses in the world, after receiving box office success with her recent films "Piku" and "Bajirao Mastani". She will be seen in the much awaited 2017 film "xXx: Return of Xander Cage", alongside actor Vin Diesel.

Source: DNA India