The Timeless and the Trending

*"I burn through the hood like whoa
When everybody's feeling so cold
I cool like Nat King Cole"*

— Classic Man by Jidennaft. Roman GianArthur

The perfect man is not just all talk; they are about the show as well. If that first impression does not knock down your all those in front of you, you know you are doing it wrong. So what to do to get into that Men VIP zone? Have no fear as here in Star Lifestyle, we take matters seriously, and as such we present our pick for the top men's accessories that you need in your life right now.

Unisex shoes, elegant timepieces, funky shades and colourful socks – nothing is off-limit for the 'Classic Man', the perfect man, the trendy dude who doesn't fear breaking off from trends!

Accessories from the personal collection of Simon Mansoor.

Leather and beaded bracelets handcrafted and decorated with silver and gold anchor make up the perfect hipster look.

A man's man cannot simply be without his timepieces. Be it part of his office attire, a casual evening or a black-tie event - watches are a must-have for every occasion.

Original Club Room and Concept paisley-themed ties in shades of purple and black. No excuses for not experimenting with your wardrobe!

Even the smallest detail counts. A fashionable belt is more than a strip of leather; for the classic man it is that final touch.

Bags never went out of style. This Kenneth Cole original with cross body strap and adjustable buckle is the ideal office bag. Carry all your goodies or necessities in style.

Casually fashionable? Tassel loafers in shades of black with complimenting designer dress socks for that lazy weekend. Flaunt your footwear in style!

"Socks?" You may ask? Well yes...traditional whites are eternal fashion accessories, but why not jazz things up a little? Let your inner agent Seeley Booth show you the way.

Get in touch with your colourful side. Our pick: Bongo men's Charlyze floral fashion shoes in black with contrasting ribbed green socks and shades.
