subjects of humanity, anti-militancy, medical education, and awareness, said NDF BD Chairman AKM Shoaib.

Some of the topics are "Faraaz - a bright star in the sea of sacrifice", "Parents, not the educational institutions, have a role in resisting militancy", "Sacrifice of youths for building a society of friendship", said Shoaib.

He said the national festival was taken to Rajshahi city to spread the debate movement across the country.

Speaking as chief guest in the inaugural session, Prof Kamrul Hasan Khan, vice chancellor of Bangabandhu Sheikh Mujib Medical University (BSMMU), said those doing well in debate succeeded in life.

"The life cycle of humans involves debates. You will experience it when you sit for examinations, when you get married, and when you are engaged in politics. So, you have to master the art," he said.

The first day of the festival started with a colourful procession of hundreds of participants parading the streets near RMC.

At least 40 adjudicators will preside over to select the champion and runner-ups from 85 debating teams and 40 quiz teams from 45 medical colleges in the country.

The judges will also select first to fifth place winners from among 29 single debaters, who are also participating in Bengali public speaking competitions and 23 other debaters who will take part in English public speaking competitions.

The festival includes holding of camp-fires, flying of fanus (paper balloons) and the cultural functions include staging of "Niruddister Sondhane", a drama by Monoj Mitra.

Officer-in-Charge of Ruhea Police Station Khan Mohammad Shahrier told The Daily Star over the phone that in primary investigation, it was proved through a video clip that the woman was forced to do squats holding her ears in front of four to five hundred people.

"To some extent, the South Asian region is also one of China's backyards," he said, adding that the northern part of South Asia is key for the (Silk Road Economic) Belt, while the southern part is important for the (21st Century Maritime Silk) Road.

Bangladesh has been positive in implementing the China-India-Myanmar-Bangladesh economic corridor, and Xi's visit will bring more practical cooperative results for the two countries, he said, China Daily reported.

During the meeting with Sheikh Hasina, Xi Jinping said the closer comprehensive partnership of cooperation the two sides forged in 2010 has yielded fruitful results, with bilateral cooperation advancing steadily in political, economic, cultural and security areas and on international and regional affairs, reports China's state news agency, Xinhua.

Xinhua reported China and Bangladesh, both are populous developing countries, have maintained a sound relationship since they established diplomatic ties in 1975.

Two-way trade between China and Bangladesh reached US$14.7 billion in 2015, up 17 percent year-on-year. China is currently Bangladesh's largest trading partner, while Bangladesh is the third largest of China in South Asia.
