

PEYA | FEATURED IN VOGUE'S OCTOBER EDITION

Actress and model Peya has been featured in Vogue India magazine in October, celebrating the magazine's ninth anniversary. Alongside her in the magazine are five other models. Her photo shoot has been done in Mumbai's Mehboob Studio in July. In charge of the photo shoot was the Fashion Director for Vogue India Magazine, Anaita Adajania, and the photos were taken by Shikha. Peya mentioned that she feels extremely humbled for being featured in this prestigious magazine.

Other than her modelling career, Peya will be seen in the film "Prem Ki Bujhni". She will also be starring in Nancy's upcoming Puja music video.

JOYA'S

New Film in Kolkata

Joya Ahsan will be starring in Kaushik Ganguly's next film titled "Bishorjon". She mentioned that she has always wanted to star in a film directed by Kaushik. Previously, she starred in "Aaborto" with Kaushik, where he starred as an actor. The film will be seen in the backdrop of West Pakistan and will focus on the border of the nation. Joya will be playing Padma, and starring opposite to her will be actor Abir Chatterjee.

The actress has been seen in West Bengal films on many occasions. Previously, she starred in Arindam Sheel's "Aaborto" and "Igol er Chokh". She also starred in Indranil Roychowdhury's "Ekti Bangali Bhoot er Goppo" and Srijit Mukherji's "Rajkahini".

Shakib Khan to Star in "Bossgiri 2"

Actor Shakib Khan will reprise his role in the sequel of "Bossgiri". The original film, which was released during Eid-ul-Azha, has seen commercial success in the box office. At the moment, the script is being written and the shooting will commence early next year. "Bossgiri 2" will be directed by Shamim Ahamed. There is no word on who will be playing the actress opposite to Shakib in the film.

The actor recently finished shooting for the film "Dhumketu", which was directed by Shafiq Hasan. Starring opposite to him in the film is actress Pori Moni.