

Tom Hanks and Emma Watson starrer "The Circle" Gets Release Date

Tom Hanks and Emma Watson starrer thriller will be released worldwide on April 28. The thriller will have Tom Hanks playing the founder of the world's largest tech and social media organization and Emma Watson as an employee who rises through the company ranks. The movie is a thriller about the dangers of living life in a digital era, where personal information is collected, filtered, monetized and used for surveillance, causing an end to privacy. The movie has been directed and written by James Ponsoldt, who is famous for films such as "The Spectacular Now" and "The End of the Tour".

Source: Variety

Kelvin Harrison and Jennifer Hudson to Star in "Monster"

Kelvin Hudson and Jennifer Hudson are all set to star in upcoming independent drama "Monster". The movie, which has recently started its production in New York City, will also include Jennifer Ehle, Nas, A$AP Rocky and many others. The movie will mark the directorial debut of music video director Anthony Mandler, who is directing from a script provided by Colen C. Wiley, based on Walter Dean Myers' novel. The story revolves around a smart young man from Harlem studying in a prestigious high school through a complicated legal fight that could leave him spending the rest of his life in jail.

Kelvin is most famous for his role in TV drama "Roots" and Jennifer, for being a Grammy award-winning recording artist and an Academy Award-winning actress.

Source: Variety

ANNASOPHIA ROBB

Set to Star in "Down a Dark Hall"

AnnaSophia Robb will be starring in the upcoming adaptation of the teen thriller based on Lois Duncan's 1974 book "I Know What You Did Last Summer". The film will be directed by Rodrigo Cortes while Stephenie Meyer, author of the popular "Twilight" series, will be producing the film. The thriller will be a drama veering into a supernatural mystery and will tell the story of Kit Gordy, a troubled teen who has a haunted past. The girl is connected and committed to Blackwood, which is a mysterious school for gifted but troubled girls, where she comes to know about the school's horrifying and secretive purpose.

Robb is best known for her portrayal of young Carrie Bradshaw in "The Carrie Diaries". She also appears in TV drama "Mercy Street".

Source: Hollywood Reporter