IN FOND MEMORY

Muhammad Abdull Jalil; Electrical Engineer

Born in 1924, in a humble village of Moulvibazar in Sylhet, the Assam-Bengal Education Board recognized him as a student of outstanding merit. However, the prospect of studying in Aligarh or Presidency came to a halt upon losing his father at the age of 17. He later graduated from Ahsanullah Engineering College (currently, BUET) in the first batch of Electrical Engineers in 1952. His career began at the Kamaphuli Hydro Power Plant, and for the next 30 years, he served at key positions at the Power Development Board. He received training in the U.S. on rural electrification, and ensured electricity access for several parts of the country.
He was an exemplary father to his four children, and led a life of esteem and contentment. We lost his light from among us on October 19, 2003. We hope for his family, relatives, and well-wishers to pray for his departed soul.

any problems," said Dr Chowdhury Tasneem Hasin, nutritionist, United Hospital Ltd.
She was addressing a discussion, "How Old are You?", jointly organised by The Daily Star and Dove at The Daily Star Centre in the capital.
According to a global research conducted by Dove, one in four women use a negative description about their appearance when asked how old they are, including words like "old" and "too fat".
In fact, the age question makes women feel so uncomfortable that two in five women have pretended to be younger and will often avoid celebrating their birthday, reads the research.
Dr Tasneem, in the profession for many years, said the stress level among urban women over ageing was beyond imagination. "A good number of mothers come to visit with their soon-to-be-married daughters worrying over their weight and skin," she added.
Group Managing Director of Asiatrac 360 Sara Zaker, Bipasha Hayat and Ogilby and Mather Managing Director Fahima Choudhury also spoke.
