

CPB's 11th congress starts Friday

STAFF CORRESPONDENT

The 11th congress of the Communist Party of Bangladesh (CPB) will begin on Friday at three different places in the capital, including Suhrawardy Udyan, to constitute a new executive body of the left-leaning political party.

A total of 683 district-level representatives including females and ethnic minorities will join the four-day congress with revolutionary democratic spirits for achieving socialism and fighting against the communalism, imperialism, looting, "absence" of democracy, said party leaders at a press conference at its Muktiabhan headquarters.

Party insiders said the last congress was held on October 13, 2012, when Mujahidul Islam Selim was elected president for the first time and Sayed Abu Zafar Ahmed general secretary. The insiders also expected that the president and general secretary will remain the same in the next committee as there are no powerful candidates to compete with them.

The goal of the congress is to create a "left-democratic" alternative force against the continued polarisation mainly between Awami League and BNP and to take preparations to take the country to an "anticipated political change", said Zafar.

They said at Mahanagar Nattamancha they will hold a closed-door discussion from October 29, and the last day central committee and control commission of the party will be elected. On October 29, CPB will also organise a seminar.

This wall was recently erected by Bangladesh Chhatra League activists on Sher-e-Bangla Medical College in Barisal "to prevent stalkers on motorcycles from preying on female students staying in a nearby hostel". The photo was taken recently.

BARISAL SHER-E-BANGLA MEDICAL COLLEGE HOSPITAL

Wall built on road by BCL causing public sufferings

SUSHANTA GHOSH, Barisal

People especially patients and their attendants have been suffering for nearly a week as Bangladesh Chhatra League (BCL) started constructing a wall on a road which was used as a shortcut towards Barisal Sher-e-Bangla Medical College Hospital in the city.

The communication through the road which connects a female dormitory of the college has been disrupted and eventually emergency medical service via the road has been hampered.

The BCL activists of the college unit led by Md Forkan Uddin Shikder began building the wall in front of the female hostel on October 20, said students.

A large number of people will suffer on a daily basis if the wall stays there, said locals.

Ambulances sometimes enter the hospital by using the road situated behind it.

Sajeda, one of the residents, said, "The blockade causing the patients a lot of trouble." Aminul Islam, another local, said he had to travel five more kilometres with a patient to go to the hospital by using another road.

Similar remark came from a day labourer, Md Jewel.

The authorities of Public Works Department, who are entrusted with looking after all the roads on the campus, visited the spot. Its Assistant Engineer Bidhan Chandra Majumder said, "I asked for not building the wall, but they continued. I informed it to the higher authorities."

The BCL unit members said they are doing so to stop stalking the female students. "We've no other alternatives," said Forkan, also a final year student.

"Our female fellows continued to be stalked by goons who always pass through the road riding motorbikes."

Talking to The Daily Star, president of the dissolved committee of the BCL unit Md Imran echoed him.

Wishing not to be named, a female student residing in the dormitory said, "We were stalked by outsiders several times. We informed the college authorities, even police, but the harassment continued."

Dr Sirajul Islam, director of the hospital, said due to the wall general students, particularly who ride motorbikes, are suffering too.

"We are trying to solve the problem of stalking." The college Principal Vaskar Saha said the law enforcers assured them of increasing patrol on the campus to end stalking.

Md Abdur Rouf, deputy commissioner (south) of Barisal Metropolitan Police, said after holding a meeting with the hospital authorities on Sunday, "we increased our patrol on the road and will continue it until the female students regain their confidence."

NEWS IN brief

Jibon remanded over assault of twins

COURT CORRESPONDENT
A Dhaka court yesterday placed a 21-year-old youth on a five-day remand in connection with the case filed over harassment and assault of teenage twin sisters in the capital's Mirpur.

The court passed the order after Sub-inspector Anuz Kumar Sarker, also the case's investigation officer, produced Jibon Karim Babu before it. Babu was arrested in Mirpur's Beribadh area Sunday. On October 19, Babu, owner of Ahona Fast Food and Khabar Hotel in the area, severely beat up the two for protesting abusive language used by him.

Chinese team visits SC legal aid office

STAFF CORRESPONDENT
A Chinese delegation yesterday visited the Supreme Court Legal Aid (SCLA) office to get experience about the government's legal aid services to the poor people, said a press release.

During the visit, the five-member team led by Li Qun Yao, the legal aid affairs minister of China's Yunnan Province, also met SCLA Committee Chairman Justice M Enayetur Rahim and discussed various issues. The delegation expressed satisfaction over the legal aid services of the Bangladesh government, the release added.

UK envoy Alison Blake visits Ctg

DIPLOMATIC CORRESPONDENT
British High Commissioner to Bangladesh Alison Blake has recently visited Chittagong and held meetings with officials, civil society and business leaders, said a press release.

"The UK has been a partner in the growth and development of Chittagong for more than 200 years. And, since we remain the same outward focused, global trading nation, long may it continue," the UK envoy said following her visit during October 18-20.

She also visited significant businesses, the British Council and the Commonwealth War Graves Commission Cemetery in Chittagong.
