BAPTISED WITH FIRE

MD SHAHNAWAZ KHAN CHANDAN

PHOTO COURTESY: MEDIA WING, BANGLADESH FIRE SERVICE AND CIVIL DEFENCE

In case of fire incidents, building collapse, road, railway or water transport accidents, and all kinds of emergency rescue operations, the Bangladesh Fire Service and Civil Defence is our first and last resort. These men, despite their limited manpower and resource constraints, have been doing a tremendous job of saving endangered lives. However, are they ready to face the challenge of rescuing people from massive ruins after a disastrous earthquake in Dhaka? How are they serving people at present with their limited resources and what are their preparations for the challenges to come? To know more read the spotlights on pages, 8, 9 and 10.
