

Another judge dismissed over anomalies

STAFF CORRESPONDENT

A lower court judge was dismissed from his service on charges of corruption and misconduct yesterday.

The law ministry issued a gazette notification on the dismissal of former Comilla women and children repression tribunal judge SM Aminul Islam (district judge), now attached to this ministry, after the president approved the decision of his dismissal.

It has dismissed four lower court judges including Aminul in last one month for their incompetence, misconducts and corruptions on advice of the Supreme Court, the ministry's Deputy Secretary (Administration) Mahbubur Rahman Sarker told The Daily Star.

The other three were former Jamalpur additional district judge Md Sirajul Islam, former Thakurgaon district judge Ruhul Amin Khandaker and former Khulna additional district judge Moinul Haque.

According to sources, Aminul was involved in a massive corruption as he granted bail in at least 20 non-bailable cases when he was a judge in Dhaka.

Ruhul Amin was involved in corruptions including taking bribes from people for giving them jobs, while Sirajul was involved in corruptions and anomalies including illegally acquiring a piece of land.

Moinul Haque was sacked for delivering verdict after taking bribes when serving as additional district judge of Khulna following complaints of 68 lawyers.

Owners and workers of medicine shops in the capital's Babubazar area demonstrate in front of their shops yesterday after a mobile court fined seven owners Tk 11 lakh in total for storing unauthorised and adulterated medicine. The court assisted by Rapid Action Battalion (Rab) and the Drug Administration, during the drive, inset, also seized medicines, worth Tk 2 crore, said executive magistrate Sarwoer Alam. Rab later dispersed the demonstrators.

So, the family has requested all to extend help for little Rudro. Financial help can be sent to account name: Nitesh Talukdar, A/C no: 6608, Sunamganj Bazar Branch, Uttara Bank.

The family can be reached at 01717-267033.

SC stays HC

Association (Bela) seeking a stay on the October 25 order.

On March 2, 2014, following a writ petition filed by Bela, the HC had also directed the company to stop filling up land to establish the housing project and remove soil that had already been dumped.

The writ petition said the company had already filled up 210 bighas of the 2,300 bigha-project area, comprising agricultural and wetlands and parts of the Meghna river.

The Department of Environment and the company then submitted a report to the HC saying they had complied with the March 2, 2014 directive.

In September this year, the company resumed earth filling for the housing project and Bela served a legal notice on October 2 bringing contempt charge against the company and DoE, said a Bela press release yesterday.

On October 13, the company and its associate, Unique Hotel and Resort Ltd, submitted a petition to the HC praying for the March 2, 2014 order's cancellation.

Another HC bench then passed the October 25 order.

A vast amount of agricultural land, water bodies and parts of the Meghna river will be protected following the SC order, said the press release.

'IRREGULARITIES' OVER RICE FOR POOR ACC arrests 3 food inspectors, six dealers in Ctg, Faridpur

N'ganj land officer also held while taking 'bribe'

CITY DESK

Anti Corruption Commission arrested three food inspectors and six dealers in Chittagong and Faridpur yesterday for alleged irregularities in distributing government rice meant for the poor.

Our staff correspondent from Chittagong reports, three inspectors of the District Food Controller Office -- Md Sahabuddin, Md Shahenewaj and Surajit -- and two dealers -- Syed Md Maruf and Md Shahabuddin -- were accused of such corruptions, said ACC's Chittagong Divisional Director Abu Sayed.

Earlier on October 29, the food office issued show cause letters against the food inspectors.

On November 1, the inspectors were suspended and the dealership of the two was cancelled.

In Faridpur, four dealers -- Sahidul Sikdar, Firoz Khan, Dabir Talukdar and Ali Hossain Khan -- were arrested, said ACC Assistant Director ASM Sazzad Hossain.

In Dinajpur, ACC arrested two persons -- Rashidul Islam and Bonmali Roy -- for misappropriating the rice meant for the poor.

Meanwhile, ACC yesterday arrested Assistant Land Officer SM Sultan of Narayanganj's Golakandail Union Land Office red-handed while he was taking bribe at his office.

ACC sources said Sultan was taking Tk 25,000 as the first installment from a person for the mutation of a piece of land as the former earlier demanded Tk 5 lakh and later agreed to do so for Tk 3 lakh.

RICE FOR ULTRA POOR Widespread 'plundering' by AL men

Alleges Khaleda in a tweet

STAFF CORRESPONDENT

BNP chairperson Khaleda Zia yesterday alleged that the ruling party men are involved in widespread "plundering" of the Tk 10 per kg rice allocated for poor people.

"We are ashamed and stunned over the news on the looting of rice allocated for the poor... by the well-off Awami League men across the country," she tweeted.

"We had kept the price of coarse rice within the limit of Tk 14-15 per kg during our rule until 2007," said the BNP chief, in her recently opened twitter account.

views-exchange meetings with local representatives, political and religious leaders and community policing units so that opportunists could not carry out subversive activities.

"We are going to form committees in all thanas and union parishes under Dhaka districts to prevent incidents like that in Brahmanbaria. A central committee will monitor it," he added.

Local Hindus also attended the human chain.

Speakers of Hindu Grand Alliance at the human chain at National Press Club said the rampage was carried out after spreading a 'false' rumour of an alleged Facebook post "hurting religious sentiment".

Meanwhile, Dhaka University Teacher's Association (Duta) and Joybanga Sangskritik Oikya Jote also condemned the attack in separate statements.

Duta also demanded that the government rehabilitate the victims.

On Sunday, miscreants vandalised and looted Hindu temples and houses in Brahmanbaria's Nasirnagar.
