

MIM'S

New Song in Her Upcoming Film

Bidya Sinha Mim's new song for the film "Ami Tomar Hote Chai" has been released on YouTube recently. The song titled "O Shundori Re" received positive response from the audience. The song has been penned down by Ananna Mamun, and sung by Shakrjeet Dasgupta and Roshni Dey. The song has been composed by Addhayan Rupok. The film will include Bappy opposite to Mim, along with other stars. The movie is set for release very soon.

The actress is currently shooting for her upcoming film titled "Pashan", which is scheduled for release in the upcoming year.

KONAL TO SING RUNA LAILA'S SONGS

Popular singer Konal will be covering some of veteran singer Runa Laila's songs in an event at Radisson Hotel. Runa Laila herself will be present in the event, which will take place tonight. Konal mentioned that she feels blessed to have been named by Runa Laila herself to sing her songs at this event. Runa has also specified the songs which she wants to see covered.

Konal previously won the Channel-i- Shera Kantha in 2009, and released her first solo album "Jaadu" the same year. She has also lent her voice for several mixed albums.

HRIDOY KHAN'S NEW ALBUM

Popular singer Hridoy Khan will be releasing his fourth album, titled "Meye", on the occasion of Valentine's Day. One of the songs "Chero Na" from the album was released for a mobile app. The song will also have a music video, which will be set for production soon. The album will consist of eight songs in total, which will all mainly focus around the theme of love as it will be released on Valentine's Day. The singer mentioned that he is hopeful about the album and that he expects positive response from the audience.

His previous albums "Chowa", "Bhalo Lage na", and "Bol Na" became very popular within no time and helped the singer make a name for himself.

