Kumarika Miss Natural 2016

Kumarika has been working in Bangladesh as a representative of nature and youth for a while now, and as such, has been able to win the hearts of consumers in a very short period of time. Since most of the products of Kumarika consist of different herbal materials made using natural methods, they nourish the hair and skin very naturally. Kumarika believes it is their responsibility to take care of natural beauty and create awareness to preserve nature.

With this philosophy, Kumarika has been arranging the online based beauty contest, 'Kumarika Miss Natural' since 2013. Previous winners of the 'Kumarika Miss Natural' crown include Ranika Razib Karmakar, Nabila Mustari, and Yearisha Jerin in the years 2013, 2014, 2015 respectively. And it is now time for their 2016's instalment of the beauty contest.

The following requirements must be met in order to be eligible for the contest. The minimum age for contestants is 18 years. Interested contestants have to visit kumarikamissnatural.com and upload three of their natural photos. They will then have to collect votes/likes on their photos from friends and families. The opportunity to send photos will remain open till 27 November.

Of all the submitted photos, 500 top photos will be initially selected on the basis of highest votes collected. Then there will be a screening process where the judges will mark these 500 top contestants. Next, the top 100 contestants will be selected considering the judges' marks and the collected votes. These 100 contestants will then have to face the judges in an interview session and only the top 20 will be move to the next level. These 20 contestants will get the chance to be groomed by different renowned individuals of the country. 10 contestants will be selected on the basis of their performances in the grooming sessions for the next round. There will be a professional photography session of these 10 contestants. These photographs will be uploaded to the official webpage of 'Kumarika Miss Natural 2016' for the final voting. The voting line will be open till the Grand Finale.

In the Grand Finale the top 10 contestants will face the judges where they will be judged on the basis of their natural look, awareness and love for nature, self confidence, wisdom etc. At the end the Champion and the Runner Ups of this Grand contest will be announced on the basis of the judges' marks and received votes. Like always, the winner will get the opportunity to act in the Valentine's Day drama sponsored by Kumarika.
