Araaz-Season's Hot Pick

If you wanted an exclusive collection of fashion jewelry, trendy kameez, eye-catching footwear and fashionable saris, Araaz should definitely be included in your 'go to' places for shopping. The owner certainly has an eye for detail, with each piece of Multani jewelry more exclusive than the other. As the name suggests, traditionally, these pieces of ornaments were crafted in a city called Multan in Pakistan. Tear-shaped precious stones also known as Kundan, are the highlight of the jewelry. Gold washes are made on the exterior of these precious metals making the items look regal and exquisite, worth wearing on special occasions including one's own wedding.

Araaz also imports exclusive Gota Patti kameez from India on a regular basis. What's most interesting is that these kameezes are available at very reasonable wholesale prices. The online shop regularly takes part in fairs around the city, with information of their activities posted on their Facebook page.

After last year's tremendous response with high-end stonestudded shoes from Lahore, Araaz have plans to include these special shoes in their collection on a regular basis. So, if you were planning on gorgeous sandals for the winter wedding this year, make sure to check out their new collection.

Is that all Araaz has to offer, you ask? Not quite. Araaz brings in a lot of chiffon and cotton Kora saris to suit all kinds of needs. These saris are particularly well-suited as regular wear and as office wear. So, there you go. If you wanted casual but traditional wear for an official correspondence, you know where to look.

You can shop online at Araaz or visit their store located at Rd 30, Gulshan 1, House 12.
