Build awareness for efficient use of energy

Nasrul urges Scouts

STAFF CORRESPONDENT

State Minister for Power, Energy and Mineral Resources Nasrul Hamid yesterday called upon the Scouts to strengthen social movement for efficient use of energy.

"United voice of 15 lakh Scout members in the country can make a huge contribution to creating social awareness," he told the inaugural ceremony of a two-day training of trainers course at Bidyut Bhaban, Dhaka.

The training was arranged ahead of the 5th National Power and Energy Camp-2016 to be held on December 20-24 for the Rover Scouts in district towns and on December 20-23 for Scouts in upazila headquarters, said a press release.

Solar home system will be provided in off-grid area through saving the costs during Power and Energy Week 2016, he added.

The camp is being held since 2012 to make Scouts and the Rover Scouts aware of such energy use and so that they can create mass awareness about it.

This year, 360 at central and 840 at region levels will be given the opportunity to take part in the training course under the camp.

4 held over attack on Taiwanese couple

STAFF CORRESPONDENT

Rapid Action Battalion (Rab) have arrested four suspects of what they termed an attempted murder of a Taiwanese couple occurred in the capital's Uttara last year.

Saju Miah, Laju Miah, Ebadul Haque alias Shopon, and Halima Begum were arrested in Ashulia, Narayanganj and Gazipur on Thursday night, informed Rab officials at a press briefing in Dhaka yesterday.

Wang Ming Chee, 55, and his wife Lue li hua, 51, was attacked in their home in Dhaka's Uttara allegedly by three of their former employees on November 6 last year during a "burglary gone wrong".

Wang Ming Chee and Lue owned a PVC door factory in Gazipur, said Lt Col Tuhin Mohammad Masud, commanding officer of Rab-1.

There was a feud between Wang and his three male former employees over some money that the former owed to the latter.

Their domestic help, Halima, confessed to interrogators that she gave them a key to the apartment before the day of the burglary. As the trio attempted to open the door from outside, Wang heard the noise, went to the door and grabbed Laju, Tuhin added.

They hit Wang with a log of wood on the head, hit his wife and made away with Tk 6 lakh.

Wang and Lue had been treated in Apollo Hospitals Dhaka before they went back to Taiwan.

Obituary

OUR CORRESPONDENT, Thakurgaon

MA Gaffar, former Pirganj upazila and Pirganj municipality chairman, died due to old-age complications at Dhaka CMH on Thursday. He was 76. He left behind his wife, a son and three daughters.

He was buried in his family graveyard in Gogor village of Ranishankoil upazila in Thakurgaon yesterday.

Correction

A story published on November 24 on page 3 inadvertently had the headline "Khamkheyali Sabha to begin" instead of "Khamkheyali Sabha to begin course on Rabindranath Tagore" and incorrectly stating that it was a regular programme of Bishwo Shahitto Kendro. It is actually a monthly gathering of avid Tagore enthusiasts of Dhaka conversing on the Bard's creations. We regret the error.

Alamgir Hossain Hawladar along with some others went to the chamber of Dr Debashish Saha at Shariatpur Sadar Hospital and demanded that the physician issue a fake medical certificate to one Hossain Khandaker. As the physician refused to comply, Aktar verbally abused him. Selim, the policeman present there, tried to stop the altercation. All of a sudden, Aktar slapped Selim.

Later, police filed a case following the incident.

Retail veg prices double of wholesale rates in Ctg

ARUN BIKASH DEY, Ctg

With winter approaching, kitchen markets in Chittagong city are becoming full with various fresh vegetables but its prices are still too high to afford.

Although vegetables are bit cheaper in wholesale markets but customers in kitchen markets are paying almost double for the same varieties, said markets sources.

In different kitchen markets including the ones in Chawk Bazar, Kazir Dewri, Bahaddarhat and Karnaphuli, tomatoes are being sold between Tk 60 and 70 per kg, while cauliflowers are available between Tk 60 and 65 per kg, cabbages between Tk 45 and 50 per kg, brinjals between Tk 60 to 70, beans between Tk 70 and 80, green papayas between Tk 55 and 60, okras between Tk 50 and 60, bitter gourds between Tk 65 and 70, and green chilies are being sold between Tk 60 and Tk 70.

However, the price of those vegetables is almost half in wholesale markets.

Manju Sawdagor, a wholesaler of city's Reazuddin Bazar, told The Daily Star that retailers tend to make extra profit which increases the price of vegetables.

Md Yasin, president of Karnaphuli Kitchen Market, said high transport cost is actually increasing the selling price. Supply of vegetables will increase to a great extent after 15 days which will decrease the price in wholesale markets and thereby in kitchen markets, he added.
