9TH WAGE BOARD Journos stage demonstrations

BSS, Dhaka

Journalists of both the electronic and print media yesterday rallied, brought out processions and submitted memorandums to the authorities concerned across the country demanding immediate announcement of the ninth wage board to enhance salaries with other benefits.

"The unusual price hike of essentials is severely affecting the life of the media people due to pay redoubling of the government officials, employees and other professionals," Manjurul Ahsan Bulbul, president of a faction of Bangladesh Federal Union of Journalists (BFUJ), told a rally as the chief guest before Dhaka's Jatiya Press Club.

Chaired by Shaban Mahmud, president of a faction of Dhaka Union of Journalists (DUJ), the rally was addressed, among others, by BFUJ faction secretary general Omar Faruque, DUJ faction general secretary Sohel Haider Chowdhury, BFUJ faction joint secretary general Amiya Ghatak Pulack, the DUJ faction leaders and former DRU president Shakhawat Hossain Badsha.

Omar Faruque urged the information minister to form the wage board by December 2016. Otherwise, he warned, the journalist community will be compelled to go for tougher movement from December 4.

The journalists also brought out a procession on Topkhana Road.

Later, they submitted a memorandum to the Ministry of Information where its secretary Martuza Ahmed received it. Martuza informed the journalist leaders that formation of the ninth wage board is under process and his office will be able to announce it soon.

Demanding announcement of the ninth wage board by December 3, factions of Bangladesh Federal Union of Journalists (BFUJ), and Dhaka Union of Journalists (DUJ) bring out a procession in the capital's Topkhana Road yesterday.

5 of int'l trafficking gangs arrested, 1 victim rescued

STAFF CORRESPONDENT

Rapid Action Battalion yesterday arrested five alleged members of two Libya-based human trafficking gangs and rescued a victim in three separate drives.

The gangs used to abduct Bangladeshi fortune seekers staying in Libya, tortured and confined them for days, and forced family members to pay ransoms to local agents, Rab claimed.

On receiving a complaint, Rab-3 arrested three alleged traffickers -- Abdul Kuddus Molla and Jakir alias Hantu Mollah in Faridpur, and Belal Matubbar in the capital's Tejgaon, said Lt Col Khandaker Golam Sarwar, commanding officer of Rab-3, yesterday.

Briefing reporters at the force's media centre in Karwan Bazar, he said several victims were rescued and kept under the supervision of Bangladesh embassy in Tripoli.

In another drive near Dhaka airport yesterday, Rab-1 arrested two alleged local agents -- Liton Khan and Noor Mohammad alias Dulal of another trafficking gang -who worked for one Belal.

The Rab team yesterday also rescued Mintu Ali Khan, a returnee migrant near the airport.

Mintu first returned to Bangladesh in 2014 from Libya leaving his money to Belal. As he wanted his money back, Belal's man Rubel tricked and sent him to Libya on October 12, where he was confined and tortured, Mintu claimed.

His family paid Tk 1.07 lakh for his release, and later sought help of police, who arrested Rubel in Gabtoli on October 27.

"Torture turned severe following Rubel's arrest," claimed Mintu. The family again paid Tk 70,000 to the local agents. Finally, they released Mintu, who returned home yesterday.

Worker dies 'falling' off building
