

CU asst proctor removed, strike postponed

CU CORRESPONDENT

The Chittagong University authorities yesterday removed its Assistant Proctor Anwar Hossain from the proctorial body following protests against him over Bangladesh Chhatra League leader Diaz Irfan Chowdhury's death.

Acting Registrar Prof Kamrul Huda issued a notice in this regard which did not specify the reason behind the removal. The Daily Star got a copy of the letter.

The authorities declined to comment on the issue.

On November 24, Diaz's mother Jeheda Amin Chowdhury lodged a case with a Chittagong court against around 20 people, including Anwar Hossain and CU unit BCL president Mohammad Alamgir Tipu.

Meanwhile, Diaz's supporters postponed their indefinite strike, which they called on Saturday demanding a fair probe into the death, on the campus after the removal of the assistant proctor.

CU unit BCL vice president Md Nazim Uddin said the removal led to the postponement of their strike.

The shuttle train service did not resume till last evening, hampering academic activities.

Few students were seen on the campus and most of the Scores of trucks queue up on the walkway right in front of Sylhet Circuit House yesterday. It was built along the Surma river between Keane Bridge and the circuit house for residents to have a glimpse of nature in a jam-packed city. But every day drivers take up the walkway with their vehicles parked from dawn to dusk to upload goods from Kalighat commercial area, preventing the residents from enjoying the opportunity. On top of that a signboard paper, inset, barring the drivers from parking there, was partially torn off, making it imply the reverse.

HC directives on govt sought to let Rohingyas in

STAFF CORRESPONDENT

A Supreme Court lawyer yesterday filed a petition with the High Court seeking its directives on the government to let oppressed Rohingyas in.

Advocate Abu Yahia Dulal filed the petition praying to the HC to order the authorities concerned of the government to temporarily open the Bangladesh-Myanmar border so the Myanmar citizens can take shelter in Bangladesh.

He said in the petition that the repressed people should be allowed to enter Bangladesh on humanitarian grounds.

In the petition he prayed to the court to issue a rule asking the authorities to explain as to why preventing them from entering Bangladesh should not be declared

ENVOY'S BAG STEALING Main suspect arrested

STAFF CORRESPONDENT

Detectives on Sunday evening arrested the main suspect in Netherlands ambassador's handbag stealing case.

Robiul Islam alias Robi, 25, of Tangail's Nagarpur, was held in the capital's Hatirpul where he resided and was placed on two-day remand by a court yesterday.

On November 23, detectives arrested Rubel, 19, who is a driver by profession, and Shams, 20, an employee at a mobile phone shop at Bashundhara City Shopping Complex.

Robi, the gang leader, ordered Rubel to steal the bag of Dutch envoy Leoni Margaretha Cuenaere from an event on Dhaka University campus on November 21, said police.

WAR CRIME CASE 5 charges pressed against three Netrakona suspects

STAFF CORRESPONDENT

Five specific charges have been pressed against three Netrakona men who allegedly committed crimes in the district during the Liberation War in 1971.

Hearing a brief submission on the charges from prosecutor Mukhlesur Rahman Badal, the three-member tribunal led by Justice Anwarul Haque fixed January 10 to decide whether to take those into cognisance.

The accused are Hedayet Ullah Anju, 80, and his brother Enayet Ullah Manju, 70, and Sohrab Fakir, 88, of Kulshree village under Atpara Police Station. Of them Manju and Sohrab are now in jail while Anju is on the run.

Prosecutors Mukhlesur and Sabina Yesmin Khan Munni submitted the formal charges and other documents to the tribunal on Sunday through its registrar office.

The tribunal's investigation agency on September 8 completed investigations against the three and said to have found their involvement in crimes against humanity and genocide in 1971.

Hedayet was a Jamaat-e-Islami leader while the other activists in 1971 and all three first joined local Peace Committees and then Razakar Bahini, an auxiliary force of the Pakistani occupation army, says the investigators.

Hedayet contested in the Pakistan Nation Election in 1970 with Jamaat ticket but was defeated. He and his brother are still involved with Jamaat, they said.

The charges include looting and torching of 20 to 30 houses in Madhuakhali village on May 29 and abduction and killing of one Malek Talukder and Kala Chand Munshi of Mobarakpur village on August 23.

Others involve the abduction and killing

N'GANJ 7-MURDER Court hears arguments of defence

A CORRESPONDENT, N'ganj

Lawyers of six of the 35 persons accused over the sensational Narayanganj seven-murder repeatedly engaged in altercations with the public prosecutor (PP) while completing placing arguments on the fourth day of the hearings yesterday.

Twenty three of the accused were present in the court of Narayanganj District and Sessions Judge Syed Enayet Hossain. The remaining are on the run. PP Advocate SM Wazed Ali Khokan said the hearings would continue today.

Court sources said advocates Sultan Uz Zaman and Shahabuddin stood for sacked Rapid Action Battalion-11 commanding officer Tareque Sayeed Mohammad, the case's prime accused.

Advocate Mizanur Rahman defended sepoy Abu Tayeb, constable Sihabuddin and habildars Emdadul Haque and Nasiruddin while advocate Harendra Nath sub-inspector Purnendu Bala.

Seven people, including Narayanganj city corporation panel mayor Nazrul Islam and senior lawyer Chandan Sarkar, were abducted from the Dhaka-Narayanganj Link Road on April 27, 2014. Their bodies were found floating in the Shitalakkhya a few days later.

Two cases were filed, one by Chandan's son-in-law Bijoy Kumar Paul another by Nazrul's wife Selina Islam Beauty.

Filing of complaints against police now one click away

STAFF CORRESPONDENT

Anyone falling victim to police excesses or harassment in any part of the country no longer needs to meet any police official in person to lodge a complaint.

Victims can file a complaint sitting at home or from any place having internet connection using--www.police.gov.bd-- the police headquarters' website.

Clicking on "Opinion or Complaint" on the webpage's bottom left corner, anyone intending to lodge a complaint can view the process of filing one online or give any type of opinion on police service.

A team of police officers led by an additional deputy inspector general (DIG) will quickly look into the allegation and investigate it to get corrupt policemen punished.

The police headquarters has taken up the initiative in light of a national integrity strategy to make police accountable and bring transparency into the force, said head of the unit concerned, Additional DIG of Police Abdul Alim Mahmud.

Although the new website was launched in August, the police headquarters is hardly getting any

Khadiza shifted to CRP from Square Hospitals

STAFF CORRESPONDENT

Over one and a half months past a brutal attack, Sylhet college student K h a d i z a Begum Nargis was taken to the Centre for the Rehabilitation of the Paralyzed (CRP) in Savar yesterday so that she could gain strength in her limbs.

"It (CRP) will begin the process of her rehabilitation into normal life," Rejaus Sattar, a neurosurgeon of Square Hospitals who has been overseeing her treatment, told The Daily Star.

He expressed hope that Khadiza would be able to walk on her own in a month. "Her left limbs are weak now. Training and therapy should cure it," he added.

Her father Mashuk Miah said he reached CRP with Khadiza at noon and expressed his gratitude to doctors who treated her. "I hope people will keep wishing her well," he said.

"We will try to our best for Khadiza's recovery. A team of physiotherapists will jointly work for her treatment," said Dr Sayer Uddin Helam, consultant of the neurosurgery department at CRP, at a press briefing.

"We hope Khadiza will be able to do everything within some days," he was quoted as saying by a correspondent.

On October 3, Khadiza was hacked brutally by Badrul Alam, a fourth-year student at the Shahjalal University of Science and Technology and also senior assistant secretary of the Bangladesh Chhatra League unit in Sust.

She was first taken to Sylhet Osmani Medical

Culinary contest held in Rangamati

A CORRESPONDENT, Rangamati

The audition of the county's biggest culinary contest Rupchanda-The Daily Star Super Chef-2017 took Rangamati by storm yesterday.

Over 45 applicants attended the event held in the Rangamati Cultural Institute hall.

Of all the participants who appeared in a 30-minute written test, only 10 accomplished the test and made it to a cook-off stage.

Among the 10, Sagarika Chakma won over the event's judges Umme Kulsum and Jebunnessa, sealing her passage to the final round to be held in the capital.

The contest's next round will be held in Cox's Bazar tomorrow.
