The Raven: Le REVE's Gothic winter collection

For this season, Le Reve - the country's leading apparel and lifestyle brand - has come up with a fresh new collection titled 'The Raven', which carries Gothic artistry. Gothic fashion, which has already earned critics' devotion in the global fashion industry, is based on eminent poet Edgar Allan Poe's "The Raven".

Le Reve took black, red, grey, and purple as primary colours to conform the look and feel of the dresses. On the other hand, the brand has used button, sleeve, cuff, neckline and front and back patch, along with python designs to add some aristocracy. The dresses have also been decorated with handicrafts, karchupi, embroidery, 3D print, extra-large floral prints, swallow bird prints, plaids, cheeks, polka dots, etc.

The brand's winter collection for men includes denim hoodies, knitted blazers, joggers, track pants, shirts, full sleeve t-shirts, polo shirts, etc.

Le Reve has also brought knitted shirts, sweaters, shrugs, linen jackets, caps, etc. for women this winter.

Le Reve also has warm and comfortable dresses inspired by Halloween for children. Outfits for boys include jackets, hoodies, polo shirts and denims in orange, red, black, grey and blue. For girls, there are hoodies, sweat-shirts, T-shirts, tunics, knit tops, denims, chinos and leggings.

Customers also have the ability to order from their website and have it home-delivered and payment done via cash on delivery.
