

STAR WEEKEND

in the news

December 2, 2016

BROKEN RIDES, BROKEN PROMISES

NILIMA JAHAN

PHOTO: KAZI TAHSIN AGAZ APURBO

While the authorities think of ways to make Dhaka a child-friendly city, amusement parks are being demolished or sold off, one after another. Even though the Shishu Park, located in Shahbag is still around, the 37-year-old park built by the public sector, is deteriorating. To read more, turn to pages 8 and 9.

3 FREE CATARACT SURGERIES FOR CHILDREN: A LIFE CHANGING INITIATIVE

About a doctor who has been continuing his initiative of ensuring free cataract surgery for poor children despite many challenges.

4 BENGAL CLASSICAL MUSIC FESTIVAL 2016: FOR THE MAESTROS OF TOMORROW

Talks about how the Bengal Classical Music Festival 2016 plays a pivotal role in shaping the future for the cultural maestros of tomorrow.

10 TOO MUCH LEARNING IS A DANGEROUS THING

Talks about how women in Bangladesh's male dominated society are prevented from taking decisions about their career.

12 TRUMP'S AMERICA 101 FOR THE DEVELOPING WORLD

Focuses on the lessons that we should take from Donald Trump's victory in US election 2016.

INSIDE

Buy a Titan watch & win exciting prizes.

Offer valid from 15th Nov-31st Dec' 2016
Assured gift with every purchase

TITAN PENDANT

TITAN SPEAKER SYSTEM

TITAN BACKPACK

TITAN TV

TITAN TROLLEY BAG

TITAN WATCH

TIME ZONE

Authorized Sales Centre

Imported & Marketed by: Kallol Enterprise Ltd. 199 Tejgaon I. A., Dhaka-1208, Tel: 58816004-9