

PETER JACKSON'S "MORTAL ENGINES" TO RELEASE IN DECEMBER 2018

Filmmaker Peter Jackson is geared up for his next big project titled "Mortal Engines", which is scheduled for release in 2018. Based on the award-winning science fiction book series by Philip Reeve, the film is set in a dystopian future where Earth's cities travel the globe on giant wheels, fighting each other for diminishing resources. "The Lord of The Rings" director also co-wrote the screenplay with Fran Walsh, who also co-directed the same film.

Peter Jackson is renowned for his films of epic proportions such as "The Hobbit" and "The Lord of the Rings". He last directed "The Hobbit: The Desolation of Smaug" in 2013 and his upcoming film includes "The Adventures of Tintin: Prisoners of the Sun", which is yet to receive its release date.

Source: Variety

Sushant Singh Rajput to Return to Theatres

Actor Sushant Singh Rajput is planning to revive his love for theatre after the success of his last film "MS Dhoni: An Untold Story". Sushant is contemplating on performing a two-character play that is planned to have a script of 60-90 minutes. The actor mentioned that he plans on doing the plays during weekends before he gets involved with his film commitments and balance between the two.

The actor will be next seen in Homi Adajania's "Takadum", which will also star Parineeti Chopra, marking the second time the duo will have appeared on-screen together. The film will also star acclaimed actor Irrfan Khan.

Source: Bollywood Hungama

Manoj Bajpayee Wins Award at 10th Asia Pacific Screen Awards

Acclaimed actor Manoj Bajpayee recently won the award for "Best Actor" at the 10th Asia Pacific Screen Awards for his impeccable role in Hansal Mehta's "Aligarh". He bagged the award by a narrow margin over Nawazuddin Siddiqui, yet another powerful actor, who was awarded with a "Special Mention" in a ceremony that took place in Brisbane, Australia.

Manoj was rejected by the National School of Drama (NSD), which is one of India's most prestigious theatre schools, four times. His consistent efforts towards self-development have helped him reach the enviable position in Bollywood today. He was last seen in "Saat Uchakkey", a film by Sanjeev Sharma.

Source: Bollywood Hungama

