

Self-help last resort

Villagers build embankment in Barguna on their own as repeated appeals fall on deaf ears

OUR CORRESPONDENT, Barisal

Villagers in Barguna Sadar upazila have built an embankment through voluntary service to protect their croplands from flooding.

Fed up with not getting any response from the authorities concerned for years, they finally joined voluntary service to build the embankment last week.

Every year during this season, saline water from the Payra and Khakdon rivers overflowing through Heulbunia canal floods crops on thousands of acres of land in four villages, said locals.

The villages are Amtali, Urbunia, Dakkhin Heulbunia and Heulbunia.

On several occasions during the last several years, the villagers appealed to the upazila parishad and Local Government Engineering Department (LGED) to take steps for building an embankment on the canal but to no effect, said Golam Ahad Sohag, chairman of Sadar Union Parishad.

Finding no other alternative, they went for self-help to build the embankment, he said.

Thousands of people with spades in hand voluntarily joined earth cutting work and built a 50-foot-long embankment on Heulbunia canal last week to protect their farmlands from saline water, said the villagers.

Upazila engineer Shakwat Hossain said they have heard about the problem but it is under the jurisdiction of the Water Development Board.

Sirajganj BCL leader attacked in Jamalpur

OUR CORRESPONDENT, Jamalpur

A Sirajganj BCL leader was badly injured as criminals beat him up in Sarishabari upazila town in the district on Monday night.

The criminals attacked Shahidul Islam, son of poet Altaf Hossain of Shalgram village in Kazipur upazila of Sirajganj, on way to his village home. He is joint secretary of Mansurnagar union unit of Bangladesh Chhatra League (BCL).

Police, quoting the victim, said Shahidul was attacked while returning home from Sarishabari upazila town of the district on his motorbike through Sarishabari-Mansurnagar road around 8:00pm.

When he reached Ghoramara area in Sarishabari, unidentified criminals hit him with sticks from behind, causing the rider with the bike to fall into a ditch. Shahidul's left leg was fractured, said Saiful Islam, sub-inspector (SI) of Sarishabari Police Station.

Hearing Shidul's cry for help, locals rushed to the spot and took him to Sarishabari Upazila Health Complex, the SI said.

"I am a candidate for the post of president of the union unit BCL committee in the election to be held on December 18. Some people attacked me in such a heinous way to make me lose courage to vie for the post," the victim told this correspondent.

AL leader found slit-throat

OUR CORRESPONDENT, Tangail

A missing former local Awami League (AL) leader was found dead with his throat slit in Bhuapur upazila of the district yesterday.

The deceased was former Bhuapur AL organising secretary Rokibul Islam Farid, 50, son of Abdul Mazid Master of Bharoi village in the upazila.

Farid, also the manager of a pulse store on Tangail-Bhuiyanpur road in Kagmaripara area, went missing on the way to home from his workplace on Monday night, police said, quoting family members.

Informed by locals, police recovered the body from a pond near his house in the morning and sent it to Tangail Medical College Hospital morgue for autopsy.

The reason behind the murder could not be known immediately, AKM Kawsar Chowdhury, officer-in-charge of Bhuapur Police Station, said, adding that they are investigating the incident.

Inhuman torture on Bogra woman

UP member takes the lead in arbitration

OUR CORRESPONDENT, Bogra

A 50-year-old woman sustained serious injuries after a local union parishad (UP) member beat her up mercilessly, blaming her for not obeying their decision.

The incident took place at an arbitration held at the victim's house at Kamarchhoto village in Gabtoli upazila of the district on November 30.

The victim, Amena Bibi, wife of Habibur Rahman of the village, is now undergoing treatment at Mohammad Ali Hospital in Bogra town.

Locals said Amena often locked in altercation with her daughter-in-law Rumpa Begum, wife of Raihan, over trifling matters.

Following the feud, Rumpa filed a complaint with local UP member Abdul Latif Latim.

On November 30, the UP member arranged an arbitration at Amena's residence to settle the issue. As Amena protested the member's decision, Latim started beating her with bamboo sticks in presence of the villagers, leaving her seriously injured.

When asked, Latim admitted of the matter and said he could not control his anger when Amena declined to follow the decision of the village meeting.

Officer-in-Charge Shaheed Mahmud Khan of Gabtoli Model Police Station said he heard about the incident but none had lodged any complaint in this regard.

2 more youths

of the police station, quoting the GD.

Imran's phone has been switched off since then.

His family looked for him everywhere but could not find him. He is five feet four and has fair complexion. He wears glasses and has beard, according to the GD.

Contacted, Sabina said her son is a student of Care Medical College in the city.

One of Imran's aunts said, "We have contacted the law enforcement and security agencies but are yet to get any information on him."

She said they came to know that Imran had last texted a girl from his cell phone, saying he was leaving. The girl, however, said she has no idea about his whereabouts, added the woman, wishing not to be named.

Meanwhile, the disappearance of the four youths from Banani on Thursday night still remains a mystery.

Since the Holey Artisan attackers and other militants had become traceless in a similar fashion, the sudden disappearance of the youths might alarm many.

Talking to this correspondent last night, Masudur Rahman, deputy commissioner (media) of the Dhaka Metropolitan Police, said, "We are yet to find the whereabouts of the four youths."

"We are continuing our drives to trace them," he said, adding that the incident was being investigated by the local police along with the Detective Branch of police.

Of the four, Zain Hossain Khan Pavel and Shafayat Hossain are students of North South University and childhood friends, while Mahedi Hasan is a student of BM College in Barisal, and Mohammad Sujan is an employee at an advertising firm in the capital, according to their families and friends.

Families of the youths, who are upset at their going missing, said they did not think any of them could be involved in militancy.

However, of the four, Shafayat used to make Facebook posts on strict religious adherence, according to his friends.

Contacted, Shafayat's father Ali Hossain, a businessman, said, "Minutes before my son went missing, my wife had talked to him. He promised to come back and help his younger sister with her studies in 10 minutes. But his phone was turned off and we have no idea what happened to him."

He also said Shafayat used to assist him in his business and he stayed with him most of the time. "My son has nothing to do with militancy," he said.

Families of the three others said they have been to the law enforcement agencies in the last few days but to no avail.

Police were yet to find any clue about the sudden disappearance of the youths or whether they have any links with militancy, said Sohel Rana, sub-inspector at Banani Police Station.

Sohel, who is investigating the matter, said they have collected security camera footage of a restaurant where the four had snacks together before going missing.

"We are investigating," he added.
