

GRAPE VINE

BOBBY'S

Upcoming Film Briddhasrom

Actress Bobby will be starring in an upcoming film titled "Briddhasrom". She will be pairing with singer S.D. Rubel in the film for the first time. The movie will be directed by Shopon Chowdhury. The movie has started its shooting in an old-age home in Gazipur. The movie will revolve around stories of people living in old-age homes. The music has been provided by S.D. Rubel. Bobby mentioned that she was really touched with the story and that she felt privileged to be chosen for working in this film.

Bobby was last seen in "One Way" alongside Bappy Chowdhury.

Anima Rai's New Album

Rabindra Sangeet exponent Anima Rai will be releasing her seventh studio album titled "Matribhumi". The album will be launched on the occasion of the 45th Victory Day of Bangladesh. The album has been produced by Prottush Bandopadhyay.

The singer mentioned that she feels that it is her responsibility as an artist to contribute to the nation and that inspired her to make this album. This is her tribute to the martyrs who lost their lives in the fight for freedom of the country.

JOYA AHSAN'S New Mission

Joya Ahsan has collaborated with Kolkata-based director Kaushik Ganguly for the first time. The film will be titled Bishorjon and she will be co-starring alongside Abir Chattopadhyay and Kaushik Ganguly himself. The logo and poster for the film have been recently revealed.

The film's story revolves around a love story between the two sides of Bengal; it will portray the notion that borders cannot contain love, with Joya Ahsan playing the role of a widowed Bangladeshi woman who falls in love with an Indian man. The movie is expected to come out on 14th April. She was last seen in "Eagoler Chokh" by Arindam Sil and will also be seen in the upcoming film "Goheen Baluchor".

