

DEEPIKA PADUKONE TO PRODUCE THE HINDI REMAKE OF "TOMB RAIDER"

Actress Deepika Padukone is geared up to make her debut as a producer with the Hindi remake of the popular franchise "Tomb Raider". The original film was a blockbuster which starred Angelina Jolie as Lara Croft. Deepika is going through various scripts to find the perfect one to mark her entrance in film production.

The actress is on top of her game with her Hollywood debut in the making with "xXx: Return of Xander Cage", which will star actors Vin Diesel, Samuel L. Jackson, Nina Dobrev and Ruby Rose. The movie is set to release in 2017. Her upcoming Bollywood venture includes Sanjay Leela Bhansali's "Padmavati".

Source: Bollywood Hungama

Abhishek Bachchan to Star in Prabhu Deva's "Lefty"

Actor Abhishek Bachchan is set to star in upcoming film "Lefty". Directed by Prabhu Deva, the film will have Abhishek turning into a powerful hero, who takes on the role of a savior when his city starts to fall. The script for the film will be written by Kona Venkat, who has previously written Salman Khan-starrer "Ready". The movie is set to go on floors next year.

Abhishek has a penchant for sports and has been recently promoting different teams from football to kabaddi. He was last seen in multi-starrer comedy "Housefull 3" along with Akshay Kumar and Riteish Deshmukh.

Source: Bollywood Hungama

DE NIRO'S

"The War With Grandpa" Gets Release Date

Veteran actor Robert De Niro's upcoming film "The War With Grandpa" will be released in theatres on October 21, 2017. Directed by Tim Hill, the movie was originally planned to release six months earlier, but later it was decided that the movie will start shooting in February. Based on the 1984 children's book by Robert Kimmel Smith, the movie revolves around a boy who has been forced to move out of his room when his recently widowed grandfather moves in. The boy takes the help of his friends to devise outrageous pranks to make his grandfather surrender the room, but he turns out to be tougher than expected as he fights back. The movie will also star Christopher Walken and Eugene Levy.

The actor was last seen in this year's action-biography "Hands of Stone".

Source: Variety