

All the world's a stage. That's the motto of every good actor; versatile actor Ziaul Faruq Apurba, popularly known as Apurba is no different. His acting career started with Gazi Rakayet's drama Boibahik in 2006 and he made his debut as a model in a TV commercial for Nescafe. He then gradually shifted to television dramas and also acted in a film called "Gangster Returns". The talented actor has widened his horizons to singing and directing telefilms to his credit. The Star Weekend caught up with the multifaceted actor to talk about his favourite writers, movies and much more.

Your Top Three Favourite Writers

Humayun Ahmed, Satyajit Ray, Sharadindu Bandyopadhyay

Three of Your Most Favourite Movies

Faceoff, Shawshank Redemption, Forrest Gump

The Character that You Loved Playing the Most

I loved playing Moyeen from X Factor as I found it quite unique.

Qualities that Every Good Actor Should Have

Concentration, dedication and urge to learn.

When Apurba is not In front of Camera

I would be found engrossed in long conversations with my friends, since I love adda. We never run out of interesting and creative things to talk about.

Your Plans for This Christmas

Unfortunately I will be busy all day for shooting.
