Special security measures for Christmas and 31st night in Ctg

STAFF CORRESPONDENT, Ctg

Police teams, each comprising six police members led by a sub-inspector, will be deployed at some 30 churches in Chittagong to ensure security for Christmas.

Besides, district police will also give special attention to avert untoward incidents at Chittagong University, and Chittagong University of Engineering and Technology (Cuet) during New Year celebration, informed Additional Superintendent of Police of Chittagong District (Special Branch) Rezaul Masud at a meeting in Chittagong Deputy Commissioner's conference room yesterday.

Police urged the church authorities to install close circuit cameras and metal detecting devices at entrances.

Moses Shamol Gomes, vice chairman of celebration committee of Pahtharghata Catholic Church, one of the largest churches in the city, said three prayers will be held between December 24 and 25.

Join next general polls without any condition

Tofail urges BNP at press confce

UNB, Dhaka

Assuring that the next general election will be held in a free and fair manner under the incumbent government, Awami League senior leader Tofail Ahmed yesterday urged BNP to join the polls without any condition.

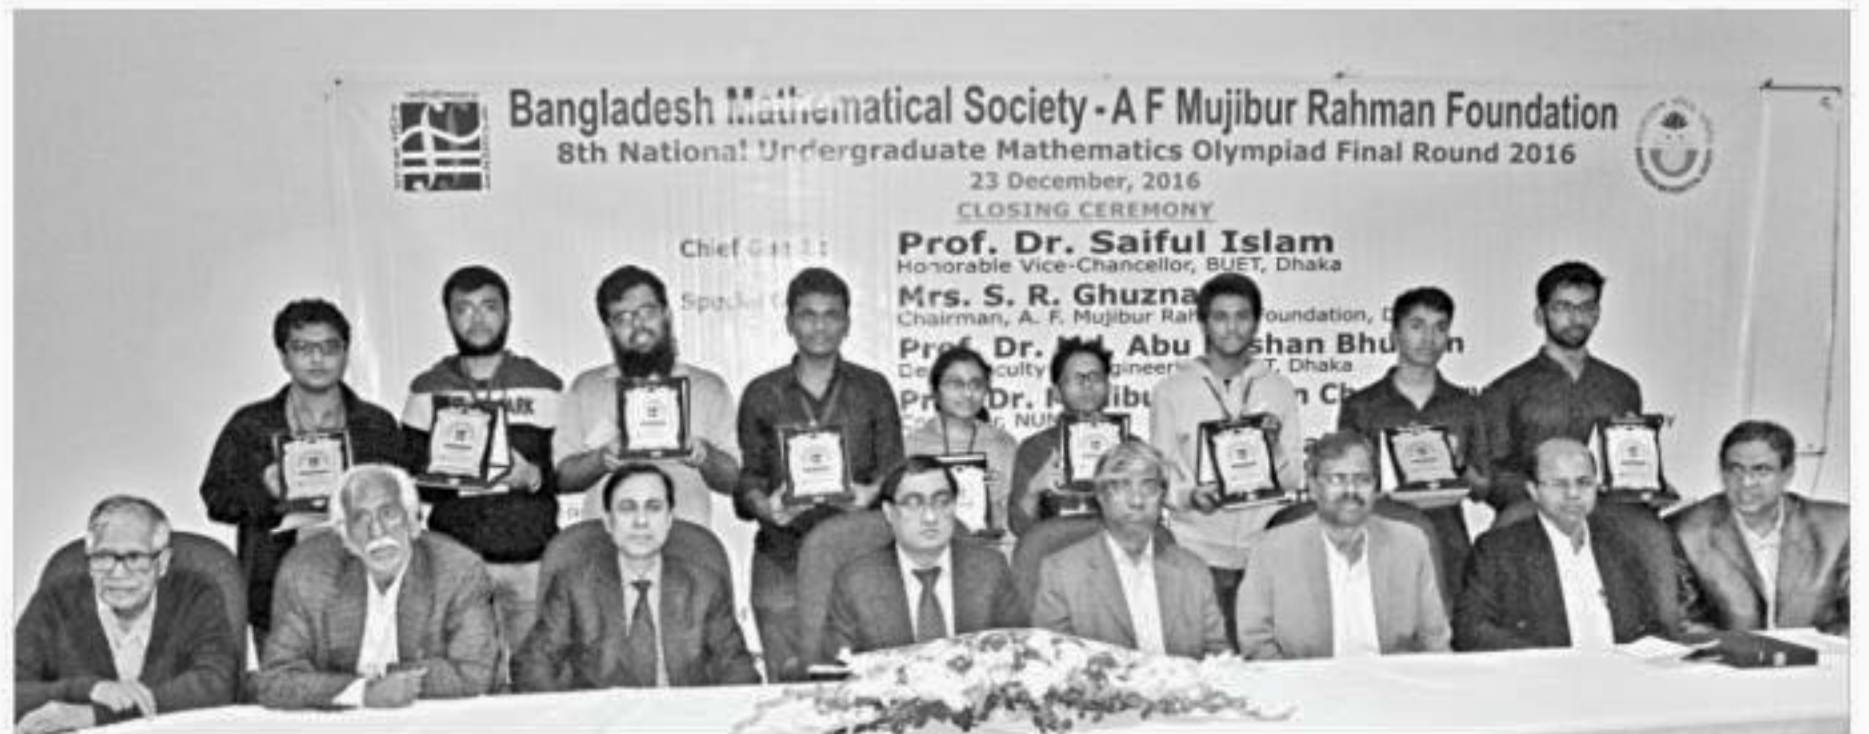

"Narayanganj City Corporation election has set an example...the next general election will also be held freely and fairly," he told a "Meet-the-Press" at Dhaka Reporters Unity.

Claiming that elections are held in a free and fair manner under the Awami League government, Tofail, also commerce minister, reiterated that the next parliamentary elections will be held under Sheikh Hasina's government while a new Election Commission will conduct it.

"I firmly believe BNP will take part in the next general election, to be held any day in 90 days ahead of January 29 in 2019, after taking lessons from Narayanganj city election," he said.

About the president's dialogue with the political parties over the formation of the new Election Commission, Tofail said the president will form a search committee for constituting the EC after the talks with the political parties.

Final round of 8th nat'l math Olympiad sees 10 winners

STAFF CORRESPONDENT

Ten contestants from public and private universities won the final round of eighth National Undergraduate Mathematics Olympiad yesterday.

Nabil Ibethaz and Moonzarin Reza from Bangladesh University of Engineering and Technology (Buet) became champion and runner-up respectively while Aslam Hossain of Barisal University became third.

The other winners are -- Tanmoy Bairagi of Khulna University, Nazif Muhammad Nafi and DM Zunayed Kamal Nibir from Dhaka University, Md Tazim Rahman and Shahnewaz from Buet, Sadat Husain from Brac University and Abdul Mohaimin Patwary of Uttara University. Sixty-two students out of 150 contestants from six regional rounds -- Dhaka north and south, Khulna, Sylhet, Rajshahi, and Chittagong took part in the final round.

The mathematics department of Buet organised the final round at its seminar room while Bangladesh Mathematical Society (BMS) in partnership with AF Mujibur Rahman Foundation organised the regional rounds between November and December 9 at six universities.

The winners were awarded a certificate and Tk 10,000 each by the department and BMS. The first three winners were also awarded Tk 5,000 each by the foundation.

Prof Md Abdul Alim of Buet chaired the programme while Prof Khandker Farid Uddin Ahmed, member secretary of the eighth math Olympiad, gave the welcome speech. Prof Md Abu Hashan Bhuiyan, dean, Faculty of Engineering at Buet, was the chief guest.

Prof Munibur Rahman Chowdhury, convener of the Olympiad, Prof Anwar Hossain, its co-convener, M Nurul Alam, a trustee member of the foundation, Prof Shahidul Islam and Prof Amulya Chandra Mandal, secretary and vice-president of BMS respectively, also spoke.

Govt to solve land

After a two-hour meeting, Rabindranath Soren, president of Jatiya Adivasi Council, told journalists that they demanded return of their ancestral land. He said the Santal people did not want to move to a new place away from the present Santal village and they were also not habituated to live in cluster villages.

They had their crematorium and graveyard at that place where they buried their forefathers and also they had religious institutions there, he added.

Among others, Philimon Bhaske, vice-president of Sahebganj-Bagdafam Bhumu Uddhar Sangram Committee, was present at the meeting.

country but only in this garden.

President of Bangladesh Bird Club Enamul Haque said they selected this venue to let people know that the garden was an important place for birds.

Chief Conservator of Forests Md Yunus Ali, who attended the fair as the chief guest, urged everyone to make social resistance against killing of birds.

He assured that he would organise this kind of fair on a suitable day every year.

Chairman of Nature and Life Foundation Mukit Mazumdar Babu said the aim of the fair was to make people aware about saving birds.

Living in fear

general secretary of Bapa, and Sharif Jamil, its joint secretary, said the country's heritage must be protected.

Mihir Kumar Doe, divisional forest officer (wildlife and nature conservation department), of Sylhet Forest Division, told this correspondent that the decision to move the Magurchhara and Lawachhara punjees from the forest was taken at a high level meeting.

"We took the decision to save the wildlife and trees. We are preparing a plan to relocate the punjees," said RFM Monirul Islam, DFO of the Sylhet Forest Division.

When asked, both of them claimed they have informed the villagers of the decision.

"Due to torture, harassment and deforestation many of the Khasi people are leaving the country," alleged Faruq Mahmud Chowdhury, president of Shushashoner Jonno Nagorik (SHUIJAN), Sylhet chapter.

Terming the decision inhumane, Gourango Patro, president of Bangladesh Adivasi Forum, Sylhet chapter, said "Indigenous people have ancestral rights to the land, which is also recognised by the United Nations. The forest department is violating international norms and standards."

KFW

KfW, the Development Bank of Germany active in Bangladesh in the areas of energy climate change, health and local governance is seeking a suitable candidate for the position as Project Coordinator at KfW office Dhaka.

Vacancy Announcement

Position: Project Coordinator

Key Responsibilities:

The main task of the Project Coordinator will be to support project implementation of selected projects financed by KfW Development Bank- in different sectors on behalf of the German Government- in Bangladesh. At the beginning the main focus will be on KfW projects in one of the sectors of German Financial Development Cooperation (energy, adaptation to climate change in urban areas, health and local governance). The scope, however, might be widened later on to other sectors and projects. This results in the following tasks:

- Closely cooperate with and support the headquarter-based project managers in implementing and monitoring projects, i.e. by providing timely and relevant project- and sector-information, analysis and recommendations and by drafting project proposals, completion and evaluation reports and other documentation as required.
- Cooperate very closely and advise KfW's project partners in all matters relating to the implementation of the projects in line with KfW's procedures. Monitor and accelerate the administrative procedures on the Bangladeshi side related to contracts, agreements and disbursement of funds.
- Achieve, maintain and share a thorough understanding of respective sector-developments in Bangladesh on the political, regulatory and macroeconomic level, as well as of activities of other international development institutions.
- Participate and represent KfW at meetings with the project partners as well as with the German Embassy and other German and international development institutions locally.
- Assist in other tasks as assigned by the office Director.

Required Qualification and Experience:

- Openness and interest to work in different sectors and to travel to the project sites as well as to Germany.
- MBA or MS in Economics or Social Science, Management, Engineering or related fields from a recognised university.
- Several years of work experience in project management, preferably in the area of one of the sectors KfW is working in.
- Experience with the work and procedures of the Bangladesh's government administration and/or with Development Partners.
- Involvement with development cooperation.
- Excellent oral and written communication skills in both Bangla and English.
- Good Knowledge in Microsoft Office application Package.
- Readiness and ability to quickly comprehend complex structures and processes capability of analytical and strategic-conceptual thinking.
- Initiative, commitment, output/result-orientation.
- Excellent communication, social and interpersonal skills, strong capacity for teamwork while at the same time ability to work independently.
- KfW is looking for a permanent assignment; the successful candidate will, however initially be provided with a two-year contract including a six-month probation period. Remuneration will be competitive, and in line with the qualifications. Women are highly encouraged to apply. Interested candidates are requested to send their application with CV, two references and a recent passport size photograph in an envelope by mail to by January 5, 2017. The envelope is to be marked "Application for the post of Project Coordinator" Only Short listed candidates will be contacted and invited for an interview which will take place end of January, 2017. The advertiser reserves the right to cancel or postpone the whole recruitment process without assigning any reasons whatsoever.

KfW Dhaka Office : Road-90, House10/C, Gulshan-2, Dhaka-1212
