FB provides user info to Bangladesh again

STAFF CORRESPONDENT

Facebook for the second time in the year has provided users' information to the Bangladesh authorities. The social media authorities gave the information of nine users after the Bangladesh government made 10 requests between January and June this year, according to the Government Requests Report released by the site yesterday. "We respond to valid requests relating to criminal cases. Each and every request we receive is checked for legal sufficiency and we reject or require greater specificity on requests that are overly broad or vague," the report stated. Earlier, Facebook gave such information to the government after it made 12 requests about 31 users' accounts between July and December last year. Facebook Inc said government requests for user account data rose 27 percent in the first half of 2016 compared to the second half of last year, with the US law enforcement agencies topping the list. Government requests for account data globally rose to 59,229 from 46,710 and more than half contained a non-disclosure order that prohibited the social networking website from notifying users. Requests for content restriction, the number of items restricted for violating local laws, decreased by 83 percent from the second half of 2015, Facebook said in a blog post.

Jessore bridge remains broken for 8yrs

UNB, Benapole

A concrete bridge over the Harihar River in Manirampur upazila of Jessore has remained unrepaired for over eight years, causing immense sufferings to the villagers of two upazilas. Around 15-20 thousand people of Manirampur and Keshabpur upazilas have been facing difficulties to cross the river every day. However, they managed to repair a portion of the broken bridge with bamboo and wood at local initiative and now using it for crossing the river amid risks. Two people died and 50 people got injured while crossing the bridge, locally known as Fakir Bridge, over the last two years. Recently, Mohammad Ali, 75, a rickshaw-van puller along with its vehicle fell into the river while crossing the bridge. He was taken to the sadar hospital where he succumbed to his injuries. Besides, a college teacher of Shyamnagar upazila slipped into the river while crossing the bridge in his motorcycle. He succumbed to his injuries 5-7 days after the incident. Sources said the bridge was constructed during the British period. About 20,000 people of Manirampur and Keshabpur upazilas of the district use the bridge and it has been lying damaged for the last 20 years. Hafizur, a resident of Manirampur upazila and a rickshaw-van puller, said, "We've brought the matter to the notice of local MP on various occasions and he assured us of repairing it but no initiative has been taken yet." Maulana Jalil Uddin, a teacher of Nagorhup Secondary School, said about 250 students come to the school after crossing the bridge. Many students fall into the river due to the dilapidated condition of the bridge. Contacted, MP Swapan said a survey was completed to construct the bridge and a tender in this regard will be floated in the current fiscal year.
