

LRB'S SILVER JUBILEE

LRB, one of the most prominent rock bands in the history of Bangladesh just celebrated their Silver Jubilee on the 20th of December. The concert was held in the International Convention City Bashundhara. "It has been a long journey for us, a lot of ups and downs, sweat and tears," said Ayub Bacchu, the legendary frontman of the band, "We are not done yet, and we want to continue doing music for as long as we are here." The band is known for their numerous super-hit songs including "Shei Tumi", "Ghumonto Shohore" and "Obhilashi" among many others.

THE MASK UNVEILED

Nawsheen's new film, "Mukhosh Manush", is releasing soon. The film is directed by Yasir Arafath Jewel and it stars Adnan Faruque Hillol, Lamia Mimo, Mithu and Kalyan Corraya among others. The film is based on cyber crime, and will be released on the 30th of December. The film's trailer has stirred up quite the controversy on YouTube, with criticism headed towards some of the erotic scenes showcased. "I never wanted to do a commercial film," said Nawsheen, "Where there was no scope to showcase my acting. I did not want to be a Heroine, I wanted to be an actress. Youngsters have a lot to learn from this film, I hope the audience likes it."

HRIDOY KHAN'S NEW TRACK

Hridoy Khan recently created a new track for the Mostafa Kamal Raz directed film "Tumi Je Amar". Co-starring in the duet song with him is Porshi. The song was written by Asif Iqbal. This is what he had to say about the song: "The song is titled 'Tumi Je Amar'. I tried my best to do a song that will be both melodious and appealing to the audience, so I hope that they receive it well. Porshi has also tried to give her best performance here.

"Tumi Je Amar" will also feature songs from Chirkutt, Tahsan and Konal.
