The Way, Dhaka – the hottest boutique hotel in town

Nestled in the vibrant and growing business district of the capital, 'The Way' Dhaka is a brand new international hotel chain. Ideally located in the central business area of Gulshan – 2, the beautiful and unique boutique hotel is only eight kilometres away from Hazrat Shah Jalal International Airport, normally a twenty-minute drive from the property.

Pet project of the globally renowned architects Rohit Tewari and M A Matin, The Way, Dhaka is an exclusive, full facility boutique hotel. To the meticulous craftsmanship of the architects, an extra bit of vivacity has been added by the distinguished and experienced interior designer Jiraparnn Tokeeree. She articulately combined modern design finesse with traditional techniques, creating beautiful furnishings at The Way, Dhaka. Her collections are steeped in beauty, grace and hospitality.

The nine-storied boutique hotel, houses thirty-eight beautifully appointed guestrooms plus two upscale suites. There is also one specially designed room with an altered layout and furniture to accommodate individuals with limited mobility.

All rooms and suites are spacious, stylishly appointed in elegant earth tones with complimentary high speed Wi-Fi Internet service, safe-to-drink tap water, iHome Device Service, Signature 'Elle Paris' Bathroom

Amenities, Rain Shower facility, Luxury Bed Linens, Mini Bar, 24-hour room service, and much more.

The Way, Dhaka houses a modest 'Work-out Fitness' Centre, with all necessary gym equipments, sauna and steam bath facility. The outdoor infinity swimming pool is located on the rooftop, allowing one to enjoy the amazing city in panoramic view.

'Aqua Deck' is the outdoor poolside area where one can enjoy casual al fresco dining any time of the day. However, late afternoons are recommended as the best time to visit the 'Aqua Deck'. During this particular time, visitors can witness the spectacular view of the sun slowly disappearing below the Dhaka skyline. With a mocktail in hand, it is an experience, surely not to be missed!

Guests can experience the innovative design of the 'Converse Café', serving exotic coffee and tea, complemented by a large selection of mouth-watering bakery items and premium chocolate. The 'Courtyard café' is located in a lovely secluded al fresco outdoor courtyard, off the hotel lobby and is a great meeting place for small social gatherings.

'Top of the Way', an upscale restaurant at The Way, Dhaka, helps visitors enjoy the taste of international cuisine with a difference while enjoying the panoramic view of the city. Diners are expected to savour the taste of the flavoursome culinary delights at the chic restaurant, taking time to enjoy a good discussion while tantalising their taste buds with great food!
