

SHOWBIZ MOMENTS OF 2016

OSCAR FINALLY!

Leonardo DiCaprio had been subject to many internet outrages over his lack of Oscars. Long time fans had felt that he is one actor who more than deserved to have that award in his already huge list of accomplishments. He finally did the inevitable and won the Oscar for the Best Actor for his role in The Revenant. Saying that the news created headlines would be a huge understatement. The internet exploded with memes and trolls, whereas the actor himself acknowledged that he was waiting for a long time to get this.

THE ARRIVAL OF A New Khan

Saif Ali Khan and Kareena Kapoor were blessed with a baby boy on the 20th of December, 2016. The child was named Taimur Ali Khan Pataudi. The name of the baby stirred a lot of controversy due to "Taimur" being a conqueror who supposedly conquered and plundered Delhi. Nevertheless, Saif and Kareena have officially revealed the picture of the baby and fans are still talking about the latest addition to the Nawab family.

FAREWELL to the Legends

2016 saw the unfortunate demise of many celebrities, with George Michael being the latest entry. The "Careless Whisper" and "Last Christmas" renowned star is said to have "passed away peacefully" in his house on Christmas Day. David Bowie, Lemmy Kilmister, Leonard Cohen, Mohammad Ali and many other legends also passed away in this fateful year. With so many great souls leaving us, it would perhaps be fair to call it the Year of the Reaper.
