

MINI COOPER ON THE WAY!

After having a split from his old boyfriend, the soccer star Cristiano Ronaldo, things got steamy for the Russian supermodel Irina Shayk and the handsome Bradley Cooper. They were both spotted at various events and sources confirmed they have been spending lots of time together and date nights followed by. The couple also took vacations on the Capri Island, Lake Garda and the New Jersey shore. The big news is Shayk were spotted with a growing baby bump when she was walking on the VS runway. The couple are expecting their first baby together. Just a week before the pregnancy news source confirmed that the couple had been also discussing the idea of marriage.

.....
Source: Internet

ARBAAZ & MALAIKA together after Divorce!

The divorce between Arbaaz Khan and Malaika Arora has shocked a lot of people including their close ones. While speculations are that the divorce has something to do with Malaika's increasing intimacy with Arjun Kapoor, the couple have decided to keep their mouth shut. They are apparently on good terms, and were even seen partying together in a family outing with Malaika's parents. All that might just be a front in order to protect their only son, Arhaan Khan. It was heard that Malaika had wanted 10 Crore rupees as compensation for their divorce.

.....
Source: Internet

Hrithik Roshan on Top

Hrithik Roshan has surpassed his contemporaries to become the highest advance tax-paying actor till mid-December. Reports suggest that the 'Mohenjo Daro' actor has seen a 1500 percent jump in his gross earnings as compared to last year in the same quarter. Hrithik paid an advance tax of Rs 80 crore this time compared to Rs 50 crore last year.

Aamir Khan, who reportedly paid an advance tax of Rs 72 crore till December, is in the second position. Ranbir Kapoor, who enjoyed a hit in 'Ae Dil Hai Mushkil', was the third-highest advance tax-paying actor. Kapoor Jr paid an advance tax of Rs 37 crore, in sharp contrast to the Rs 9 crore that he had paid in the same quarter last year. Salman Khan is in the fourth position with Rs 14 crore, compared to Rs 10 crore for the same quarter last year. Interestingly, Akshay Kumar, who was leading until September last year, now stands on the fifth spot with Rs 10 crore paid to Income Tax Department. The sixth position is taken by Deepika Padukone. Karan Johar leads among the directors with an advance tax of Rs 4.2 crore.

.....
Source: Times of India