

VIN DIESEL'S BOLLYWOOD DEBUT!

Hollywood Star Vin Diesel reportedly said that he is ready to cross over to Bollywood to star in a film with Deepika Padukone. Vin Diesel worked with Deepika in his film "xXx: Return of Xander Cage" and has been fascinated with Bollywood ever since. "Just that the people who make these movies want to make magic like everybody else. I am not the type of person who finds differences in things; I like to find similarities in things," said Vin Diesel.

QUANTICO SENDS PC TO THE ER

The 34-year old Quantico actress was rushed to the ER after she slipped and hit her head causing a concussion on January 12th. After being treated, Priyanka Chopra was discharged and is now recovering at home. Priyanka is expected to return to the show after the weekend. Priyanka Chopra has previously stated that she maintains good shape as she tries to do all the stunts on her own. The Baywatch actress also added, "People always say you should listen to your body. But I don't listen to my body," she said. "My body listens to me. I can't afford to be sick or low on energy. It's mind over matter." It is a shame that these stunts are now making her pay such a hefty price.

Zoe Saldana and the bullies of Hollywood

Zoe Saldana, an avid critic of Donald J. Trump, has stated that Hollywood has made people affectionate towards him and resulted into the big win in the recent elections. "The Guardians of the Galaxy" and "Avatar" famed added, "We were trying to single out a man for all these things he was doing wrong...and that created empathy in a big group of people in America that felt bad for him and that are believing in his promises...I'm learning from him with a lot of humility."
