

Appeal for help

OUR CORRESPONDENT, Pirojpur

Dalia Akter, 20, a first year honours student of accounting department at Government Suhrawardi College in Pirojpur town, is suffering from kidney disease.

Both of her kidneys have damaged and she needs Tk 7 lakh for kidney transplantation. But her farmer father Md Ruhul Howlader of Jujkhola village is unable to bear the treatment cost.

So, the family has requested all to make an effort to save her life.

Financial assistance can be sent to A/C no- 27447, Islami Bank, Pirojpur Branch, or to Ruhul's bKash personal account no-01721548134.

As there is no scope to use this public toilet due to absence of water supply near the children's park in the capital's Shahbagh with a message, "no water, locked" written on its main door, styrofoam traders and other hawkers occupy the space in front of it. The photo was taken recently.

Road makes life difficult for Barisal residents

SUSHANTO GHOSH, Barisal

The 30km Taltoli-Fakirbari road which connects four upazilas to Barisal city has remained dilapidated for two years, causing immense sufferings to hundreds.

To visit Sadar, Hijla, Mehendiganj and Muladi upazilas in the district, around 50,000 people use the road of which condition for three kilometres got worse.

Locals expressed their anger at the inaction by the authorities concerned to repair it.

When asked whether any step was taken in the last two years, Mohammad Moklesur Rahman, 65, a freedom fighter living in the city's Taltoli, replied, "Not yet."

Similar statement came from many other residents in the area, including Ariful Islam and Jabber Mia.

Due to downpour, waterlogging and a lack of proper maintenance, numerous cracks and potholes developed on that portion of the busy road, they said.

The road is showing its brick soling layer as the bituminous surface is getting off, said Akbar Mia, a bus driver on the route.

The cost of carrying goods has increased as the farmers and traders have to choose rickshaw-vans instead of motor vehicles which are mostly avoiding the road.

The vehicles sometimes have to move slowly and take much time to reach their respective destinations.

Nazrul Islam, a vegetable trader living in Sayestabad, said the rickshaw-van pullers now charge Tk 180 to Tk 200 where it was between Tk 80 and Tk 100 a year ago for a 6km journey from Taltoli to Sayestabad.

Arif Ahamed Munna, chairman of Sayestabad Union Parishad, said they informed the sadar upazila chairman of the road condition through a letter one year ago.

Chairman Saidur Rahaman Rintu said they had submitted the proposal to the Roads and Highways Department.

Khaled Shams, executive engineer of RHD in Barisal, said he visited the road on January 15, adding that they will offer tender in this regard within two months.

Pace of investigation frustrates family

ARAFAT RAHAMAN, RU

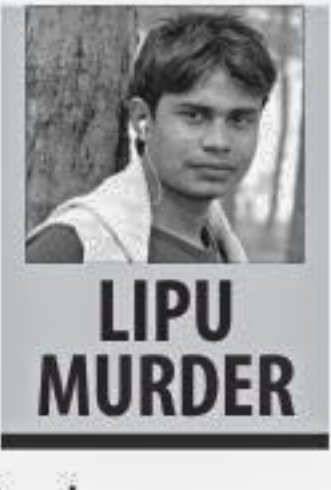

Even after three months into the murder of Rajshahi University student Lipu, no significant progress was made in the investigation into the incident.

Meanwhile, police on Friday got an official order to hand over the murder case to the Criminal Investigation Department (CID), confirmed Mahabub Alam, investigation officer of the case.

The handover process will be finished within two or three days, he said.

When asked about the reason behind the official order, he said, "For better probe."

The victim's family members are getting frustrated over the slow progress in the investigation.

Lipu's father Badar Uddin said, "We want to see that the killers are punished as soon as possible."

Talking to The Daily Star, his mother Hosne Ara Begum said, "I had sent my son for study there, but he returned home in a coffin."

... What should I tell you now? I am just waiting for justice."

"May no mother lose her child like me," she wailed.

On the other hand, around 300 students from different departments of the university staged demonstrations on the campus yesterday demanding immediate arrest of the killers and fair trial.

Death anniversary

CITY DESK
Today is the fourth death anniversary of Mukitir Rahman Bhuiyan, managing director of Maxwell International. His family members requested all to pray for the salvation of his departed soul.

A man rides a motor-bike squeezing three of his family members on a vehicle inadequate to hold more than two. Though the Motor Vehicles Act, 1983, prohibits more than one pillion rider and riders must wear helmets, the rules are often ignored, putting everyone's life at risk. The photo was taken from Kazi Nazrul Islam Avenue yesterday.

4 Bangladeshi women return from Indian jail

OUR CORRESPONDENT, Benapole

Four Bangladeshi women returned home through Benapole check-post yesterday after serving two-and-a-half years in an Indian prison.

Indian Border Security Force (BSF) handed them over to Border Guard Bangladesh (BGG).

Benapole check-post BGG Camp Commander Abdul Wahab said the four Bangladeshi women had illegally entered Indian territory through Jessore border point without valid documents three years ago.

Later, Indian police arrested them from Kolkata city in West Bengal. A case was filed against them and an Indian court sentenced them to two-and-a-half years' imprisonment each for illegally crossing the border without valid documents.

The Indian government returned them following exchange of letters between the home ministries of the two countries.

Police said they handed the returnees to their respective families.
